Below is an excerpt from His Imperial Majesty Emperor Haile Selassie I speech at the unveiling of Ras Makonnen Monument on October 2, 1960. Identify the parts of speech (noun, verb, adjective, pronoun, conjunction) by writing them under its correct heading.

“It is for us today a source of gratification and immense joy when we unveil in the city of Harar this statue of Our Father His Highness Ras Makonnen, whose names occupies ample space in the pages of Ethiopian history as the foremost among the country’s distinguished servants who, during the past century, rendered invaluable service to preserve the unity and greatness of Ethiopia, already attested by recorded achievements.

Apart from the great service he has rendered as a military leader and as an envoy of goodwill who has secured many friends in our country, His Highness Ras Makonnen was a kind and sympathetic administrator and a great lover of truth and justice. He paid particular attention to us from childhood so that this love of truth and justice has been instilled on our mind, an element which has been a fountain of inspiration for our own self-discipline and for leading our people towards their destiny, thus permitting the memory of his priceless service to remain perpetually vivid.”
