

White Americans Day – Not Even a Month!!
It is Not Racist to Declare that White Americans –
Especially Men - Deserve a Day. Making a Point!!

“No, we do not even have a day”

I had previously written about the 3rd Saturday in September, but I believe the 3rd Saturday in October would be better!

Establish the National White Americans Day

Race will decrease being an issue in America when We the People do as my Mother taught me to do as a young boy. She said, “Andy, you need to treat everyone the same”.

o o o o

Or in other words, as what is the commonly referred to as the Golden Rule,

“Do unto others as you would have them do unto you”.

That phrase originated from Book of Matthew, verse 7:12 of the King James version of the Holy Bible.

To be very clear,

America is not a racist country!

Yes, my fellow Americans, I am calling for the first Annual National White Americans Day to be observed in October of 2023. It would be observed on the third Saturday in October each year. In 2023, it would fall on Saturday September 21st.

I had no intention of bringing up this issue until several months ago I was listening to a Black female that I had heard talk on cable before. I will be nice for now and not mention her name here. That might change! Always slightly biased but never over the top. But this time she stated that, “Anyone that puts out an American Flag in their yard is a racist.”

That was enough and enough is too much.

It must be noted that some people actually believe that Black people cannot be racist against White people. That is simply ridiculous! There are “racist” in every country in the world. That is humanity. Thankfully though in nations such as ours – they are the true minority.

I would point out that since 1775, some 1,400,000 people have died fighting to create and preserve our nation and the US Constitution. And by far, the overwhelming number of them were White males! Give respect and thanks where it is due...

The Race issue in America has gone completely off the rails the last five (5) years and it is time to bring our society back to some rational order.

Friction between the Races in America is not nearly as bad as some social agitators are making it seem. We have had enough of the divide and conquer games played by again, Republican politicians and some radical groups.

- This new holiday makes perfect sense. As the Moody Blues once said, “It is a question of balance!”
- The average American does not spend all day thinking about race.
- If someone dislikes and/or hates another group of people without ever meeting them, it is simple ignorance. They were taught to hate.
- There is common dislike of different groups in every nation in the world. And the more difficult economic life is in a given nation, the more friction will exist.
- More on this another day...
