By @SwadeDaVillain

Atlanta, Georgia artist CBR Scrip has been a part of the underground music scene for several years making connections, and highlighting talent. Having officially started his music career professionally in recent years, he has managed to catch the attention of listeners in and out of Georgia thanks to a release of various mixtapes. With a respectable following, he looks to cover more ground as he teams up with fellow artist Knick Babie on the joint project, "Uniting".

Featuring 8 tracks, CBR Scrip and Knick Babie display great chemistry on the "Uniting" project. We get a look into their lifestyles, their experiences, real life situations, and motivational music for the streets. CBR Scrip shows a superb work ethic here as "Uniting" is his 12th project since 2020. With plenty of trap production to back up the street music, BossGame_NO and D'usse Dillinger are the only guest appearances on the project, making way for more of Scrip and Knick's collaborative efforts. CBR Scrip is currently gearing up to release even more music, and he encourages listeners to keep "Uniting" in heavy rotation. Get your speakers ready for some dope music!
