LEGAL NOTICE OF CLAIMS PROCEDURE

U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission v. The Heartland Group Ventures, LLC, et al.
United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Fort Worth Division
Case No. 4-21cv-1310-O-BP

As of December 2, 2021, the Court appointed Deborah D. Williamson as the Court-appointed Receiver for certain Defendants and Relief Defendants (together, the “Receivership Parties”). The Court approved the Receiver’s proposed Claims Procedure, which will allow investor claimants to file a Proof of Claim Form and, ultimately, receive a distribution from the Receiver if deemed to have an allowed claim.

What Do I Have to Do? If you agree with the Receiver’s statement of your Net Transaction amount (as stated in Part II, question 1 of the Proof of Claim form included with this Notice), then you do not need to submit a Proof of Claim form. If you dispute the Receiver’s proposed claim amount, then you must fill out and submit a Proof of Claim in accordance with the instructions set forth in Sections 1 through 3 above. When you fill out the Proof of Claim, you must sign under penalty of perjury that these three (3) things are true:

1. You transferred to and/or invested funds with one or more of the Receivership Parties;
2. You are not affiliated with any of the Receivership Parties; and
3. You have not already received a return of funds exceeding the amounts you invested with the Receivership Parties.

If you do not meet these three (3) requirements, DO NOT submit Proof of Claim.

Proof of Claim forms must be submitted so as to be actually received by the Receiver’s claims agent, Stretto, on or before February 5, 2024, at 11:59 p.m. (prevailing Central Time). If you do not submit a completed and signed Proof of Claim form by the deadline, then you will not have an opportunity to dispute your Net Transaction Amount.

What Happens if I Submit a Proof of Claim?

1. The Receiver retains the right to object to any submitted claim.
2. If the Receiver doesn’t object, your submitted claim will be the basis for any proposed distribution.
3. If the Receiver objects to your submitted claim, then the Receiver will provide a response to you, stating her objection and the basis for her objection. You will then have twenty-one (21) days from the date of the Receiver’s response to provide supplemental documentation or otherwise respond to the Receiver. If you fail to submit supplemental documentation within that time frame or if the Receiver still disputes your proposed claim amount, then the Receiver will file a motion with the Court setting out her objection(s) to your submitted claim. You will be served with any such motion and have the ability to file with the Court a response or objection pursuant to the Local Civil Rules for the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas. The Court will then determine your final claim amount in this Case.

LEGAL NOTICE OF CLAIMS PROCEDURE

U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission v. The Heartland Group Ventures, LLC, et al.
United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Fort Worth Division
Case No. 4-21cv-1310-O-BP

As of December 2, 2021, the Court appointed Deborah D. Williamson as the Court-appointed Receiver for certain Defendants and Relief Defendants (together, the “Receivership Parties”). The Court approved the Receiver’s proposed Claims Procedure, which will allow investor claimants to file a Proof of Claim Form and, ultimately, receive a distribution from the Receiver if deemed to have an allowed claim.

What Do I Have to Do? If you suffered losses as a result of investments with any of the Receivership Parties, then you must fill out and submit a Proof of Claim in accordance with the instructions set forth in Sections 1 through 3 above. When you fill out the Proof of Claim, you must sign under penalty of perjury that these three (3) things are true:

1. You transferred to and/or invested funds with one or more of the Receivership Parties;
2. You are not affiliated with any of the Receivership Parties; and
3. You have not already received a return of funds exceeding the amounts you invested with the Receivership Parties.

If you do not meet all of these three (3) requirements, DO NOT submit Proof of Claim.

Proof of Claim forms must be submitted so as to be actually received by the Receiver’s claims agent, Stretto, on or before February 5, 2024, at 11:59 p.m. (prevailing Central Time). If you do not submit a completed and signed Proof of Claim form by the deadline, then you will not be entitled to receive any distribution from the Heartland Receivership.

What Happens if I Submit a Proof of Claim?

1. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION: By submitting a Proof of Claim, you consent and submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Fort Worth Division for all purposes and agree to be bound by its decisions, including, without limitation, a determination as to the validity and amount of any Claims asserted against the Receivership Parties. In submitting a Proof of Claim, you agree to be bound by the actions of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Fort Worth Division even if that means your Claim is limited, reduced, or disallowed claim.
2. VERIFICATION OF CLAIMS: All Proof of Claim Forms submitted are subject to verification by the Receiver. The Receiver reserves any and all rights to: (i) verify all submitted Proofs of Claim; and (ii) object to any submitted Proof of Claim on any and all substantive or administrative grounds. It is important to provide complete and accurate information to facilitate this effort. Claimants must be willing to submit to an interview and may be asked to supply additional information to complete the claims process.
3. If the Receiver doesn’t object, your submitted claim will be the basis for any proposed distribution.

4. If the Receiver objects to your submitted claim, then the Receiver will provide a response to you, stating her objection and the basis for her objection. You will then have twenty-one (21) days from the date of the Receiver's response to provide supplemental documentation or otherwise respond to the Receiver. If you fail to submit supplemental documentation within that time frame or if the Receiver still disputes your proposed claim amount, then the Receiver will file a motion with the Court setting out her objection(s) to your submitted claim. You will be served with any such motion and have the ability to file with the Court a response or objection pursuant to the Local Civil Rules for the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas. The Court will then determine your final claim amount in this Case.

Technical Support: For technical support in filling out the online Proof of Claim or submitting supporting documentation, please visit <https://cases.stretto.com/heartland/faqs> for Frequently Asked Questions or contact the Receiver's claims agent at HeartlandReceivership@stretto.com.
