LEGAL NOTICE OF CLAIMS PROCEDURE

U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission v. The Heartland Group Ventures, LLC, et al. United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Fort Worth Division Case No. 4-21cv-1310-O-BP

As of December 2, 2021, the Court appointed Deborah D. Williamson as the Court-appointed Receiver for certain Defendants and Relief Defendants (together, the "Receivership Parties"). The Court approved the Receiver's proposed Claims Procedure, which will allow investor claimants to file a Proof of Claim Form and, ultimately, receive a distribution from the Receiver if deemed to have an allowed claim.

What Do I Have to Do? If you agree with the Receiver's statement of your Net Transaction amount (as stated in Part II, question 1 of the Proof of Claim form included with this Notice), then you do not need to submit a Proof of Claim form. If you dispute the Receiver's proposed claim amount, then you must fill out and submit a Proof of Claim in accordance with the instructions set forth in Sections 1 through 3 above. When you fill out the Proof of Claim, you must sign under penalty of perjury that these three (3) things are true:

- 1. You transferred to and/or invested funds with one or more of the Receivership Parties;
- 2. You are not affiliated with any of the Receivership Parties; and
- 3. You have not already received a return of funds exceeding the amounts you invested with the Receivership Parties.

If you do not meet these three (3) requirements, DO NOT submit Proof of Claim.

Proof of Claim forms must be submitted so as to be actually received by the Receiver's claims agent, Stretto, on or before February 5, 2024, at 11:59 p.m. (prevailing Central Time). If you do not submit a completed and signed Proof of Claim form by the deadline, then you will not have an opportunity to dispute your Net Transaction Amount.

What Happens if I Submit a Proof of Claim?

- 1. The Receiver retains the right to object to any submitted claim.
- 2. If the Receiver doesn't object, your submitted claim will be the basis for any proposed distribution.
- 3. If the Receiver objects to your submitted claim, then the Receiver will provide a response to you, stating her objection and the basis for her objection. You will then have twenty-one (21) days from the date of the Receiver's response to provide supplemental documentation or otherwise respond to the Receiver. If you fail to submit supplemental documentation within that time frame or if the Receiver still disputes your proposed claim amount, then the Receiver will file a motion with the Court setting out her objection(s) to your submitted claim. You will be served with any such motion and have the ability to file with the Court a response or objection pursuant to the Local Civil Rules for the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas. The Court will then determine your final claim amount in this Case.
