

MEET OUR PASTOR ~ DONALD J. HAYDEL JR

Donald was born and raised in New Orleans, Louisiana and is a graduate of St. Augustine High School. He is an Air Force veteran that serve for 21 years. He is currently employed as a federal employee with Department of the Navy in Charleston, SC. He has an Associate Degree in Ecological Control Management and Theological Studies, a bachelor's degree in Business Administration, and a master's degree in Business and Organizational Security.

At the age of 24, he accepted Christ into his life and continues to allow God to transform and renew him daily. In 1990, he accepted his called into the ministry and was first license as a Minister with New Testament Baptist Church in Sacramento, CA, and have pastored two Native American churches in North Dakota. Throughout his years in ministry, God begin speaking to Donald concerning his call to function as an Apostle (apostello, God sent one) to a local church. For many years, he has operated in the capacity of a pastor, elder and minister under several pastors, bishops, and apostles and in January 2019, God spoke that he was now release and to go and establish His church in Sumter SC, named Unfailing Love Worship Center where he is to disciple, teach, train, and equip God's people of God's desire of a personal relationship and worship unto Him.

Donald believes in the Power of the Holy Ghost and Prayer. He walks by faith and NOT by sight! He loves and enjoy studying the word of God and reading. He has a heart for God's people and to see the Kingdom of God advancing. His desire is for God's people to grow in the knowledge of Jesus Christ and to know and understand the working of the power of the Holy Spirit in one's life and the importance of developing a personal, intimate, and love relationship with the Father. For each person to know their authority in Jesus, that God has called us, as sons and daughters, to rule and to have authority and dominion in the earth.

True to himself, knowing all that he is, is because of God's love, grace, mercy, and forgiveness. Donald functions under the apostolic anointing, speaking the truth in love and doing only what God has called him to do and be as he also is being perfected to become more like Christ daily. He has a passion concerning the works of the ministry and what God has trusted and birth in and through him for the local church and Sumter SC community. Donald understands that God's people does not belong to him, but he was call to shepherd the flock, to make disciples and to send them forth to do and to observe all that Jesus commanded. He is married to Marilyn Haydel, a prophet of God. Together, they have experienced the importance of "Building People NOT a Building." They are a blended and blessed family, with four beautiful children, Joshua, Ariane, James, and Daniel.
