☆☆☆☆☆ Highest Civic Ideals ☆☆☆☆☆

8 of 8 ★ With Expanded Content Including Practical Need & Benefits of Daily Transcendence

We, Star Citizens — vastly to improve and safeguard our lives, creative achievements, and positive potentials — pledge our sincere commitments to most effective alignment with all Our Highest Civic Ideals! Let us build civilizations where all are educated to these key values, and all try their best to be appropriately responsible! We resolve to approach this ideal through shared ethics, understandings, techniques, and solidarity — among individuals, communities, nations, and peoples everywhere.

*Our declared values are timeless principles that apply at every level of relationship: holistic good will, honesty, integrity, responsible freedoms, peace, justice, happiness, and fulfillment in genuine, lasting love! Let us wisely look to these ideals as Guiding Stars for healthful, sustainable, productive relationships. Let everyone learn, share, practice, and enjoy all these principles, for they will support our most intelligent, expanded, and lively collective consciousness. Let us employ them with deep calm, courage, competence, compassion, and growing capacity. Empowered by knowledge of all these duties of Star Citizenship, let us weave together, with hope and determination: Civic Unity Amidst Magnificent Creative Diversity!

*As all the “free” fingers of healthy hands stay intelligently connected — “tied” by their ligaments to proper responsibilities; and to their vital supports from the whole body and mind — as each one serves and protects all its teammates, and never even “thinks” to hurt any of the others — let us all make best efforts to respect, protect, and serve: not only ourselves and our personal surroundings, but all our supporting teams, communities, and the *universal society and environment upon which we all depend!

Aligned all together in this way: with a common commitment to all Our Highest Civic Ideals — by learning and observing them to our best abilities — by reaching, with holistic intelligence, toward universal mutual respect and good will — together we can and shall attain and sustain more lasting security and healthier, happier lives — abundant with the blessings of responsible liberties, creativity, harmony, positive achievements, and joyful fulfillment.

To succeed in this great and necessary collective endeavor: Let everyone be empowered and trained to meet basic needs daily. Basic needs include restful, deep sleep, but also mentally alert, balancing rest in deep silent meditation! Just as each of our fingers takes ultimate direction and support from the whole hand, body, and brain; true, effortless transcendence provides refreshing, energizing mental nourishment — & profoundly helpful, as if “automatic” coordination with others! * This comes easily with simple, natural relaxation into a super-restful state and “field” of pure, elemental consciousness that connects us all. In this way, gently harmonized beyond words and differences, we will keep many distinctions, yet rise above conflicts with greater flexibility, grace, teamwork, and creativity; better to meet life’s difficult challenges.

Let each individual learn or refresh — and strive best to apply — all our declared civic principles in good balance and proportion to each specific life situation! ★ Let us all do our best to Communicate, Cooperate, and Celebrate inclusively! ★ Let us embrace holistic good will and mutual respect with courage and humility combined; with honesty, integrity, kindness, and creativity; with patience, compassion, generosity, and mutual forgiveness, as often needed. ★ Together, let us pursue comprehensive, deep understandings and achieve common, harmonizing goals!

Aiming always to optimize healthful relationships — and to rebound apace from the sting of conflicts, setbacks, and loss — let us seek to evolve best outcomes from any scenario! Let everyone learn, commit to, and experience abundant benefits from sharing and practicing all our declared ideals, values, and principles!

And may fulfillment rest with all those who do their best: to seek and share truth and understanding; to sustain responsible fair liberties; to achieve traction in effective cooperation; to preserve, restore, and create healthy environments; to pursue and provide restorative justice; to enjoy lasting peace, love, and happiness together in commitment, solidarity, and Friendship for All Our Highest Civic Ideals!

* There is a natural interaction between individuality and universality at the level of the transcendent.
