Pledge for Most Effective Alignment With All Our

☆☆☆ Highest Civic Ideals ☆☆☆

8 of 8 ☆ With Expanded Content Including Practical Need & Benefits of Daily Transcendence

We, Star Citizens — vastly to improve and safeguard our lives, creative achievements, and positive potentials — pledge our sincere commitments to most effective alignment with all Our Highest Civic Ideals! Let us build civilizations where all are educated to these key values, and all try their best to be appropriately responsible! We resolve to approach this ideal through collective shared ethics, understandings, techniques, and solidarity — among individuals, communities, nations, and peoples everywhere.

Our declared values are timeless principles that apply at every level of relationship: holistic good will, honesty, integrity, responsible freedoms, justice, peace, happiness, and fulfillment in genuine, lasting love. Let us look to these ideals wisely, as Guiding Stars for healthful, sustainable, productive relationships. Let everyone learn, share, practice, and enjoy all these principles, for they will support our most intelligent, lively, expanded, collective consciousness. Let us employ them with deep calm, courage, competence, compassion, and growing capacity. Empowered by knowledge of all these duties of Star Citizenship, let us weave together with hope and determination: Civic Unity Amidst Magnificent, Natural and Creative Diversity!

As all the “free” fingers of the healthy hand stay intelligently connected — literally “tied” by the ligaments to each other, their responsibilities, and vital sources of support from the whole body and mind; as each one serves and protects all its teammates — and never thinks to hurt another — let us all make best efforts to respect, protect, and nourish not only ourselves and our personal surroundings, but all our supporting teams, communities, and the universal society and environment upon which we all depend!

Aligned all together in this way — with a common commitment to all Our Highest Civic Ideals — by learning and observing them to our best abilities — by reaching, with holistic intelligence, toward universal mutual respect and good will — together we will attain and sustain lasting security and healthier, happier lives — abundant with the blessings of responsible liberties, creativity, harmony, positive achievements, and joyful fulfillment.

To empower this great and necessary endeavor: Let everyone be trained and empowered first to meet basic needs daily. These include restful deep sleep, but also deeply conscious, mentally balancing rest in silent meditation. Just as each of our fingers takes ultimate direction and vital support from the whole hand, body, and brain; true transcendence provides effortless, refreshing, energizing mental nourishment — & profoundly helpful, seemingly automatic coordination with others! This comes easily with simple, natural relaxation into a super-restful state and “field” of pure, elemental consciousness that helps connect us all. In this way, gently harmonized beyond words and differences, we will naturally keep many distinctions, yet rise above conflict with greater flexibility, grace, teamwork, and creativity; better to meet life’s difficult challenges.

Let each individual learn and strive to apply all our declared civic principles in best balance and proportion to each specific life situation. ★ Let us all do our best to Communicate, Cooperate, and Celebrate inclusively! ★ Let us embrace holistic good will and mutual respect with much-needed courage and humility combined; with honesty, integrity, kindness, and creativity; with patience, compassion, generosity, and frequently-needed mutual forgiveness. ★ Together, let us pursue deep, comprehensive understandings and achieve common, harmonizing goals.

Aiming always to optimize healthful relationships — and to rebound apace from the sting of conflicts, setbacks, and loss — let us seek to evolve best outcomes from any scenario. Let everyone learn, commit to, and experience abundant, earned benefits from sharing and practicing all our declared principles, values, and ideals.

And let fulfillment rest with all those who do their best: to seek and share truth and understanding; to sustain responsible liberties and fairness; to achieve traction in effective cooperation; to preserve, restore, and create healthy environments; to pursue and provide restorative justice; and to enjoy lasting peace, love, and happiness together — in commitment, solidarity, and Friendship for All Our Highest Civic Ideals!
