INTRODUCTION TO THE 1989 STAR ALLIANCE DECLARATION & CELEBRATION FOR WORLD PEACE

🌟 Historical Notes by the Author 🌟 Peter Bruce DuMont 🌟

The STAR ALLIANCE Declaration series promotes (in theory, for people everywhere) Our Highest Civic Ideals. These are values and principles toward sustainable, positive relationships and societies for all.

The accompanying early edition was signed by *H.H. The Dalai Lama*¹, during his 1989 visit to the historic Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco, and by a number of additional VIP-luminaries thereafter.

In honor of His Holiness' 90th birthday and tireless work spreading good will and compassion worldwide — we have posted this historical document online, along with other STAR ALLIANCE peace documents and support materials carefully developed over the intervening years.

This brief and impactful edition was also signed by star vocalist Sarah Brightman (Phantom of the Opera), noted Environmentalists David Brower (Sierra Club / Earth Island) and Russell Peterson (Audubon Society); Eddie Fisher (actor/singer/father of Carrie Fisher, aka Princess Lea), 49er's football star Gene Washington, prominent San Francisco jeweler Sidney Mobell, and Mr. Vladimir Azaroushkin, Vice-Consul in San Francisco at the time for the former U.S.S.R..

Certain characteristics of this historic Declaration remain outstanding today, including its advanced vision for a “cooperative, participatory, non-factional, World Peace Quality-of-Life Media Network — for continuously enhancing appreciation, understanding, and rapport; helping to resolve conflicts peacefully; and creating practical friendships, People-to-People, Everywhere.”

Use of the term Good Will ahead of the term Peace at the conclusion of the document is of special note. The extraordinary importance of this sequence is featured at the top the home page of our website, and in the Star Citizen’s Reflection for Good Will Over Ill Will, to be found under the Good Will Civic Values page.

Finally: When Vice-Consul Azaroushkin approached me while departing a reception on Market Street, hosted by the World Affairs Council in late 1989, he seemed well aware already of the document, which stood displayed on an easel standing next to me in the lobby.

This was not surprising, as STAR ALLIANCE had regularly mailed or delivered copies of our updates to the Russian Consulate of the time, on Green Street in the prestigious Pacific Heights district of San Francisco.

A video cameraman stood by ready to record the action. The consul made friendly eye contact, and stopped to greet me. I invited him to sign.

He acknowledged me with respect, but seeing the pen I was offering, hesitated and indicated to the effect:

Yes. Perhaps. But before I sign, I have a question for you. Don't you think it might be a little premature to celebrate peace? It seems there are so many things left still needing to be done!

I replied to the effect:

That’s true, Sir! But at STAR ALLIANCE, we also feel that celebrating the good things about each other’s countries and cultures is an important part of the process of creating and sustaining peace!

Ah! He replied, with apparent satisfaction and a touch of relief.

Decisively, he took the pen from my hand and signed his name — with what surely seemed like more than individual effect.
