

Jacquelyn H. Wesson is a partner at Wesson & Wesson, LLC with offices in Birmingham and Warrior, Alabama. Her practice includes litigation of cases in state and federal court. She is admitted to United States Court of Appeals, 11th Circuit; United States District Court, Northern District of Alabama; United States District Court, Middle District of Alabama, and all Alabama state courts. She is experienced in domestic relations and family law practice, contested probate matters, civil litigation, bankruptcy, extensive appellate work, and civil rights litigation. In addition, she is a Registered Mediator with the Alabama Center for Dispute Resolution. Featured verdicts obtained in her practice include: Ten Million Dollar ($10,000,000.00) verdict for client who was victim of sexual abuse and assault as a child – case prosecuted after minor obtained age of majority; One Million Eight Hundred and Ninety Thousand Dollar ($1,890,000.00) jury verdict for client on a breach of oral contract claim for lifetime employment; grant of partial summary judgment awarding One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) to a spouse, finding provision of prenuptial agreement enforceable. Mrs. Wesson has taught classes as an adjunct faculty member at the Birmingham School of Law since 2005, including Legal Research and Writing, Legal Ethics, Domestic Relations, Pleadings and Practice, Agency and Partnership, and Study Skills for MEE/MPT bar preparation. In addition to her law practice, Mrs. Wesson is in her third term on the city council of Warrior and serves as Mayor Pro Tempore. Prior to practicing law, Mrs. Wesson worked as a registered nurse, and she maintains this licensure.