

What's Our Way to Obey?
Reflection from Fr. John Phelps, C.Ss.R.

March 1, 2020 - 1st Sunday of Lent

Genesis 2:7-3:7 & Matthew 4:1-11 with Romans 5:12-19

It is amazing how the author of the creation story we just heard wrote that God took clay and fashioned the first man and breathed the spirit into him. He was asked to obey God and not eat of the tree in the center – Knowledge of Good and Evil.

It was not good for man to be alone. So God fashioned the woman using his rib. And the two were to become one. The first temptation came from the “serpent” to the woman to disobey what she heard from the man. She ate, didn’t die. And he ate.

Notice how God came to find the man, not the woman. God had spoken to him. He had shared with her what God had told him. What would have happened if the man had not eaten of the forbidden tree. Could his response to her be – you are forgiven?

We begin our readiness to remember the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus. The three temptations are at the beginning of Him going public – stone to bread, testing God by jumping from the temple, and serving the devil – the “serpent.”

All of us have eaten from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. All of us have suffered as a result of disobedience. All of us need to be forgiven. All of us are called, as Adam and Eve were called, to till the soil, to be good stewards.

To be good stewards means we want to obey Jesus who gives us Life. To be tempted is to want God to be the clay and for us to be the potter. Aren’t you totally amazed at how He emptied himself, became a slave and died to set those who fall free?

To obey is to know what we have been given – our time, our talents and our treasury. To obey is to want to love the One Who chose us to do what His will for those to whom He sends us. To obey is to use what we are given for His honor and glory.

Jesus, I trust in You – the prayer of Divine Mercy. On our money we say “In God We Trust.” Do we show our trust by the way we use our money and all it represents? As we begin our Lenten series, reflect as obedient stewards, given what we have, as a Catholic community, what does God ask of us? If we do our best, God will do the rest!

Mass/Stations of the Cross

Each Friday during Lent, we will celebrate the Eucharist and pray the Stations of the Cross on Friday evenings at 6:00 p.m. in the church. All are welcome.

Also, since we are now in the solemn season of Lent, it’s good to remind everyone that Father offers the Sacrament of Reconciliation every Sunday beginning at 9:30 a.m. in the sacristy to the left of the altar. What a wonderful way to prepare to celebrate our Lord’s glorious resurrection at Easter.

Community Meal

This month’s Community Meal, to take place on Thursday, March 12 at 6:30 p.m., will be the first one hosted in the cafeteria of Loyola High School. This is our opportunity to meet and get to know our neighbors. We ask all parishioners to consider attending and to invite a neighbor or friend. We can only build our community by reaching out to others!

Earline Gaston

Long-time parishioner, Earline Gaston, passed into eternal life on Thursday. Details regarding funeral arrangements will be provided when available via a robocall. Please pray for Earline and her family.

Lenten Mini-Series

Today, Father John begins the Lenten Mini-Series, Stewardship: God’s Partnership with the Chosen. The series will continue on March 15 and March 29 as part of extended liturgies in church.

This Week at St. Peter Claver

- Stewardship Commission meets at 6:30 p.m. on Monday at the Parish House.
- Lectio Divina prayer resumes on Wednesday at 1:00 p.m. at the Parish House.

Our Mission Statement

Having reflected on the “four faces of our parish,” St. Peter Claver Catholic Community, chosen by the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, and under the guidance of Mary, resolves that: 1) we will provide more opportunities for deepening prayer life and faith life for youth, young adults, and adults; 2) we will initiate efforts to reach out and re-connect with those individuals and families who have disconnected from the Church; 3) we will collaborate with other faith communities and organizations within our parish to offer ecumenical events/activities (e.g., neighborhood clean-ups, prayer meetings, health fairs); and, 4) we will utilize resources within our parish community to advocate for education and to promote social justice issues.

Women Bridging Change: Wounded Healers Care Groups

... a small group ministry for those seeking spiritual and emotional healing

Life Directions Training Center, focus: Life Institute is beginning a new small group ministry called Women Bridging Change: Wounded Healers Care Groups. The purpose of this ministry is to offer individuals a safe place to heal from deep wounds, false beliefs, damaged emotions, and dysfunctional behaviors, all in a confidential small group setting.

The Women Bridging Change: Wounded Healer Care Groups ministry may be for you if you struggle in any of the following areas:

Experiencing God's Love

Knowing Your True Identity in Christ

Loving Yourself and Loving Others

Self-Defeating Behaviors

Negative Thinking

Encouraging Others who struggle with the above

Women Bridging Change: Wounded Healers Care Groups is a comprehensive sixteen-week small group experience. Each session lasts 2 – 2 ½ hours. Participants receive their own workbook and two textbooks. The workbook provides everything the participant needs for the small group times. Each meeting includes teaching materials on the session topic, an activity centered around the topic, and a healing prayer time.

Stewardship Thoughts

Today's Scripture readings focus on avoiding temptation. The Book of Genesis details the fall of Adam and Eve, from which St. Augustine established Catholic teaching on original sin. Psalm 51 expresses God's mercy and forgiveness. In St. Paul's Letter to the Romans, he alerts the community to God's abundant grace in Jesus Christ, and how acquittal and life came to all through one righteous act. The evangelist St. Matthew, in his Gospel, tells how Jesus' 40 days of fasting in the desert ends with the devil unsuccessfully tempting Christ. Temptations distract Christian stewards from deepening personal relationships with Jesus. They hinder us from pursuing God's will, weaken us, and lead us to sin. Yet, even when we falter, our Lord's forgiveness is always available through the Sacrament of Penance.

“Spirituality is what our faith looks like in everyday life.
It is about getting to the bottom of our restlessness.
It is here where God is.

Certification of Lay Ecclesial Ministers (Evangelization & Missionary Discipleship)

Those who devote themselves to a regular professional ministry have an obligation to proper formation and education. Lay Ecclesial Ministers, just like the ordained, need and deserve high standards of formation, effective methods, and comprehensive goals. The Department of Evangelization and Missionary Discipleship, in collaboration with Sacred Heart Major Seminary, offers formation for Christian Service Coordinators, Youth Ministers, Liturgical Musicians, Parish Catechetical Leaders/Directors of Religious Education and RCIA Coordinators.

Through participation in USCCB-approved coursework in human, spiritual, intellectual and pastoral formation, Lay Ecclesial Ministers acquire the resources needed to more effectively minister to the faithful. To learn more about the process of becoming a Certified Lay Ecclesial Minister, contact the Department of Evangelization and Missionary Discipleship at (313) 596-7306.

For more information on this and other CSA-funded ministries, visit aod.org.

Lenten Family Prayer Challenge

Sign up for the Lenten Family Prayer Challenge where you get a daily prayer prompt to remind you to pray for your spouse, children, and/or parents. Since prayer is the life-breath and heartbeat of a Christian home, it is one of the best ways to help your family thrive. We are encouraging everyone to say their prayer in the noon hour each day so that people all over the Archdiocese can unite their prayers for families! Sign up today at www.52sundays.com/lenten-prayer-challenge. Questions? Visit the FAQ section of the website or email the Family Evangelization Team at evangelization@aod.org.

A Verse a Day For You to Pray

Today: Psalms 51:3-4: Have mercy on me, O God, in your goodness; in the greatness of your compassion wipe out my offense. Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me.

Monday: Leviticus 19:1-2: The LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the whole assembly of the children of Israel and tell them: Be holy, for I, the LORD, your God, am holy."

Tuesday: Matthew 6:7-8: Jesus said to his disciples: "In praying, do not babble like the pagans, who think that they will be heard because of their many words. Do not be like them. Your Father knows what you need before you ask him."

Wednesday: Jonah 3:10: When God saw by the actions of the people of Nineveh how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

Thursday: Matthew 7:7-8: Jesus said to his disciples: "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened."

Friday: Ezekiel 18:21: Thus says the Lord GOD: If the wicked man turns away from all the sins he committed, if he keeps all my statutes and does what is right and just, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

Saturday: Deuteronomy 26:16: Moses spoke to the people, saying: "This day the LORD, your God, commands you to observe these statutes and decrees. Be careful, then, to observe them with all your heart and with all your soul."

Note: All verses are taken from the Mass readings for the day.
