

Dear Missionaries,

With a grateful heart I am writing to you. First, I want to personally thank you for all your faithful service that you provided to our communities. Not only did you provide the service, but you did so with a willing and joyful heart. As things are unfolding before us, it will require the followers of Jesus to embrace our call as everyday missionaries such as your being sent on behalf of Jesus our King. Missionary work is sharing what is in your heart.

Missionary work has continued to move forward despite COVID-19 Pandemic. God recognizes your faithfulness in doing His work. You have been serving faithfully and have been very fruitful being the hands, feet and heart as you serve your neighborhoods, your place of employment, your schools, your country roads, and your neck of the woods, all the time spreading the love of God throughout the country by serving others!

Missionaries on the field, I ask this one thing of you, continue to let your light shine, that your good works may glorify your Father in Heaven. Be encouraged in the Lord to continue your valuable ministry, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord, “Missionaries, you heard the call, you responded to the charge.

I heard you when you said.”

- I was a stranger, and you gave me clothing.
- For I was hungry, and you fed me at the shelter.
- I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me.
- There were Handwritten cards and letters you sent to me.
- I was in a convalescent home, and you drove by and sang to me.
- You held Local Food Banks at your churches just for me.
- You contacted the Bereaved families just to check on me.
- You Continued checking on the Elderly because you cared about me.
- You drove me to doctors' appointments because you cared for me.
- You served the poorest of the poor by shipping items to Africa.

Missionaries, I love each and every one of you. I appreciate you. I say, “thank you, thank you, thank you; you are a blessing!” Please accept these roses attached from my heart.

“I will give thanks to you, LORD, with all my heart; I will tell of all your wonderful deeds.” Ps. 9:1

May God richly bless you is my prayer,
