

Declaration of Understanding

I, _____ understand the risks and potential rewards of Print Name purchasing pallet merchandise. I understand that the merchandise I am purchasing is sold as-is with no guarantees. I understand that I am purchasing customer returned goods and that some, or even all of the product on/in the pallets may be damaged.

I am purchasing this pallet with the complete understanding that War on Retail does not check, test or inspect the product in any way and does not offer refunds, warranties or exchanges on the product I am purchasing.

I understand that I have two days to pick up my products from the main building or my products becomes the property of War on Retail. I understand that I must be at the warehouse by 4:30 to be loaded before the end of the day. I understand that if I fail to pick up my product in the given time frame that War on Retail has the right to re-sell, re-use or destroy product and that I am in no way entitled to reimbursement.

Sign: _____ Date: _____