

2026 Corporate Advisory Board

WHO WE ARE

The Organization for Latino Health Advocacy (OLHA) is a national nonprofit committed to empowering Latino communities across the United States to achieve optimal health and well-being through advocacy, education, and research. Our mission is to ensure that Latinos and other medically underserved populations have equitable access to the resources, knowledge, and support needed for healthy, fulfilling lives.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITMENTS

The Corporate Advisory Board is a vital partner in advancing OLHA's mission to improve health outcomes for Latinos and other medically underserved communities. As a member of the Corporate Advisory Board, your organization will collaborate directly with OLHA's leadership team to provide strategic guidance, foster impactful partnerships, and secure critical resources to strengthen our advocacy efforts.

- Active participation: Attend semiannual meetings (virtual or in-person) and contribute to discussions.
- Financial support: Provide an annual corporate donation or sponsorship to fund key initiatives.
- Engagement: Participate in at least one event or advocacy campaign per year.
- Advisory roles: Offer expertise in areas such as policy, healthcare innovations, or community outreach.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Brand visibility: Recognition as a partner in Latino health advocacy in all relevant marketing materials, reports, and events.
- Networking opportunities: Access to a diverse network of leaders in health policy, Latino advocacy, and community-based organizations.
- Thought leadership: Opportunities to contribute to publications, panels, and events that highlight evidence-based health policy solutions to achieve equity.
