Social media policy:

DO NOT take photos of any horses on the property without permission from their owner.

You are not permitted to post content on social media that could be perceived as negative, rude, offensive, or derogatory. This includes content that portrays a horse in a negative manner or highlights negative aspects of its performance or behaviour.

Horses are unpredictable, and incidents or behaviours that may occur during riding or training should not be shared on social media for entertainment purposes, as they can negatively impact the horse's reputation and public perception. This includes, but is not limited to, falls, behavioural issues, tripping, bucking, broncing, or any other incidents that may portray the horse negatively.

AE has no tolerance to bullying. In the event of bullying being reported to AE (on or off property), the participant will be removed from our program & no refund will be given.
