REVIV AYITI

Maximizing culture as an asset to build a global economy for Haiti.

Reviv Ayiti is a non-profit corporation registered in New Orleans in 2022 to serve as a bridge to connect cultural institutions and entrepreneurs of Haiti, New Orleans, and the Diaspora to maximize culture as an asset to build a global economy for Haiti.

Reviv Ayiti is created to collaborate with cultural and academic institutions, cultural bearers, artists, and entrepreneurs who want to contribute to Haiti's economic growth.

The last 2 years we've been:

- Researching the cultural ecosystem in New Orleans
- Connecting with cultural leaders, institutions, culture bearers, and entrepreneurs
- Testing opportunities for products Made in Haiti

REVIV AYITI

Key Findings

- Haitian entrepreneurs and cultural institutions want to activate in the New Orleans cultural economy
- New Orleans-based institutions are very interested in collaborating to elevate the presence of Haitian heritage

The Missing Element

A mechanism to manage partnerships and consistently advocate for Haiti's presence in the cultural economy

REVIV AYITI

"As we stand at the crossroads of heritage and innovation, let us unite to honor Haiti's rich cultural legacy and breathe life into collaborative efforts that spark economic vitality and artistic ingenuity.

Together, we can weave a tapestry of collective impact that not only sustains but also elevates the narrative of Haiti.

Join us in this transformative journey, where every contribution amplifies our shared heritage and propels us toward a brighter, united future."

Régine René-Labrousse

Our Request

Reviv Ayiti is seeking collaborators to support the 2025 research and development phase of 2 efforts designed to meet the needs of the cultural sector and enable experts to seize opportunities:

- Co-create a shared narrative for Haiti and New Orleans that the ecosystem can simultaneously adopt.
- Create experiences with partner institutions affirming the ingenuity of this shared heritage
