

CHECKLIST - INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX RETURN 2024

Bantacs Accountants (Qld) Pty Ltd

PLEASE NOTE:

PAYG Summaries and Health Insurance Statements – We can now access this information through the ATO portal so most employers and health funds are not issuing paper versions. It may still be worth bringing in your 30th June payslip as there is now less information available on the PAYG summaries.

Bank Interest and Shares – It can take a couple of months for this sort of information to arrive on the ATO portal so if you are coming in early it would be worth bringing this information with you.

Letters from your Employer – The ATO's latest trick is in every audit with any work-related tax deductions, to require you to produce a letter from your employer verifying these expenses were necessary for you to carry out your job. Audits tend to happen a year or so after you lodge your tax return. By then you might not be on good terms with your employer or your supervisor may have left. It would be prudent to acquire this letter at the end of each financial year just in case your number comes up. We can help you with a draft when preparing your tax return. Alternatively, a template is available on our checklist page https://www.bantacs.com.au/media-library/checklists/ In the 2024 budget the government allocated more money to the ATO to increase its audit activities

Virtual tax Returns - We also do tax returns over zoom. Please ask administration staff if you are interested at the time of booking your appointment.

Substantiation

The following are the substantiation rules that you should be aware of. Under self-assessment, you are responsible for making sure your tax return meets the substantiation requirements. Usually, a receipt is required showing the item purchased, the amount, the date and the name of the supplier is required to claim a tax deduction for a work-related expense. Private use may need to be apportioned. Many of the following expenses, where there is a portion of private use, require a one-month diary or similar record. You can download a spreadsheet to keep these records from the BAN TACS website https://www.bantacs.com.au/shop-2/diary-template/

Laundry – You can claim 50 cents per mixed load and $1 per full load of qualifying uniforms or protective clothing, up to $150 per year. Simply take your average loads per week and multiply it by the number of weeks you worked.

Less Than $300 – If you claim less than $300 in work related expenses such as self-education, tools, uniforms, protective items, stationery, union fees, etc you do not need to substantiate your claim with receipts. Any claim you make for motor vehicle expenses or travel costs (includes tolls and parking) is not counted towards the $300 limit.

Less Than $10 – If each individual expense is less than $10 and the total of all such expenses does not exceed $200 you do not need to keep a receipt but must have a diary entry showing the name of the supplier, date, amount and a description of the purchase. This also applies when you can't get a receipt such as parking meters.

Allowances – Each year the ATO produces a list of what it considers reasonable travel allowances. If your employer pays you an allowance and you do not claim more than the amount listed by the ATO as reasonable you do not have to substantiate with receipts. Though the onus of proof is so onerous that we recommend you keep the receipts so that rather than relying on the ATO discretion you can rely on the legislation. If you are relying on the allowance concessions the ATO will only allow you to claim for certain meals eaten at certain times and if you miss that time a catch up meal can't be claimed. They also expect you to show credit card entries to prove that you where the one who actually paid for the meal and a diary with the details of you trip. It is just easier and safer to keep receipts. If you are away from home for more than 5 nights you will need to keep a travel diary anyway.

The ATO releases what it considers a reasonable overtime meal allowance each year. If you choose to rely on the reasonable allowance concession you can claim up to this amount even if your employer pays you less but you must be paid the allowance under an award.

Whereas if you keep a receipt, doesn't matter how much it is you can claim it.

AAT recently accepted the ATO's opinion that to qualify to deduct the cost of a meal against your overtime meal allowance you must buy and consume the overtime meal while at work. This now means you can't buy the meal on your way home and claim it. Hopefully this will one day be challenged as the law says in connection with overtime not while working overtime. Consider maybe buying something at lunch time to consume while working overtime, don't forget to keep a receipt just in case. If you haven't, at least pick up a copy of the price list from where you normally purchase your meal.

Home Office – The ATO allows you 67 cents per hour for every hour you are working at home. This covers electricity and maintenance on the room, your mobile, internet, stationary and printer supplies. If you use your phone a lot it is probably better not to use the per hour method. You must keep a diary for the whole year. For more detail https://www.bantacs.com.au/Jblog/urgent-warning-start-a-diary-of-your-home-office-use-now/#more-1259

Motor Vehicle – By keeping a diary for one month each year you can claim up to 5,000 kilometres per vehicle you own. If you own a car together with another person and it is only their name on the registration papers they can complete a declaration of joint ownership so you can claim it. You are also considered to be the owner of a car even if it is registered in the name of another family member but you are the one who pays all the expenses relating to it.

Telephone – To claim STD and mobile calls from your home phone go through one month's itemised account and work out the numbers that are work related. This percentage of work related calls can be applied to the mobile and STD calls in the other months. Local calls can be apportioned by keeping a diary for one month noting the ratio of private to work related local calls. Line rental can also be apportioned. If you are claiming the 67 cents an hour home office method you cannot claim your phone.

Mobile Phones – Analyse one month's statement and apply its ratio of work to private calls to the rest of the year. If your phone calls are not listed on the statement print up screen shots of one month's recent calls history and write beside each call whether it was for work or private. This ratio can be used to apportion your phone bill. If you haven't kept records but do need to use your mobile for work you can claim a flat $50 without records. You cannot claim your mobile if you are using the 67 cents per hour method for home office.

Commissioner's Discretion – If you have sufficient evidence that you have incurred the expense and would have been entitled to a deduction if you had a receipt then the ATO must still allow you the deduction but it needs to be beyond doubt that you incurred the expense.

Work related Travel – Wage earners can claim their motor vehicle expenses when they meet the substantiation requirements and they travel as follows:

9 of 10

- 1) Bulky Equipment Home to work travel is claimable if there is no safe storage at work and as a result you transport bulky equipment between home and work. Safe storage is defined as similar to your own personal locker. Therefore, a container on a building site to which all and sundry has a key is not safe storage. Case S29 prescribed more than 20kg was bulky. The ATO gives the example of a ladder and drum kit not because they weigh more than 20kg but because they fulfil the difficulty to carry side of bulky.
- 2) Abnormal workplace, this is defined in ATO material as:

From your normal workplace to an alternative workplace – for example, a client's premises – while still on duty and back to your normal workplace or directly home. From your home to an alternative workplace for work purposes and then to your normal workplace or directly home.

This includes being sent to another branch or shop to relieve providing you were not employed predominantly to relieve. It covers seminars and visits to customers. It also includes work related tasks performed on the way home or to work but, note MT 2027, the task cannot be insignificant such as dropping off the mail. But if you have to travel out of your way to drop off the mail you can claim for this extra distance. For more refer TD 96/42 & TD 96/43.

- 3) Between Jobs note this includes travel from home when home is the base of operations or work begins there. Home can be considered a base of employment if employment related duties have begun before leaving there, providing those employment related duties did not begin merely for your convenience. Working from home during COVID does not make it your base of operations.
- 4) Itinerant work Your job involves travelling to more than one place of work before you return home. In the case of itinerancy you not only get travel between those places of work but also between home and the first and last place of work. Carers are a good example.
- It is good practice to get a letter from your employer stating you need to incur these expenses. Better now than in a couple of years' time if you are audited, as you might not be on good terms with your employer at the latter time. Here is a link to a template for the type of letter we recommend. https://www.bantacs.com.au/media-library/checklists/
