CURRICULUM VITAE FOR PHILLIP K. CHA

ABOUT

Phillip K. Cha is a mediator and founder of Cha Mediation Services, where he specializes in mediating employment and business disputes.

As a mediator, Phillip distinguishes himself for his even-keeled, direct, no-nonsense communication style, as well as his ability to listen, build trust and rapport and provide a candid, fair case evaluation.

Prior to launching Cha Mediation Services, Phillip spent his entire career, spanning over 16 years, practicing in the labor and employment law field. It was during this journey that Phillip developed the skills and experience needed to be an effective mediator.

At various stops in his career, Phillip has represented publicly-traded corporations, insureds of employment practices liability insurance carriers, startups and small businesses in a variety of industries, including energy, financial services, pharmaceuticals/healthcare, manufacturing, non-profit, retail, technology and transportation.

In addition to his subject-matter expertise, Phillip also has extensive experience representing clients in the Korean-American community, which has given him a keen understanding of the cultural dynamics affecting the underlying litigation.

Phillip was born in New York, NY and grew up in the San Fernando Valley of Greater Los Angeles.
