Bike Repair Station Donated to City of Jackson by People for the Parks & Experience Jackson

By Aaron Dimick,
City of Jackson

Public Information Officer

Cyclists needing a quick fix while enjoying local trails now have a new feature to help them in times of need. Experience Jackson has joined forces with People for the Parks and Trails (PPT) to donate a new bike repair station to the City of Jackson for use on the MLK Equality Trail.

The bike repair station has been installed at New Leaf Park, a small trailhead park located off Fourth Street along the MLK Equality Trail. The Dero Fixit Plus station includes all the tools necessary to perform basic bike repairs and maintenance, from changing a flat to adjusting brakes and gears. Hanging arms give cyclists an easy place to adjust bikes. An air pump attached to the stand helps cyclists fix flats while on the go.

The stand's installation was completed on Monday, Aug. 19. A video that shows how the station works is available on this page.

People for the Parks and Trails is a resident-led non-profit organization dedicated to improving park facilities in the City of Jackson through volunteer projects, advocacy, and donations. Each year, the volunteer group donates a new park feature to the City parks system. Previous donations include trash cans and bike racks. Experience Jackson, the area's official tourism bureau, sponsored PPT's 2024 donation to help while in town," said Rachel Buchanan, Experience Jackson's Marketing & Development Manager. "Our outdoor trails county-wide offer both a relaxing and quality activity during their stay. Having the tools to keep their riding equipment in the best shape is a way for them to remember local hospitality."

PPT President and Co-Founder Aaron Dimick thanks Experience Jackson for this donation. "MLK Equality Trail is a big community asset when it comes to keeping the community active, but also assisting residents in getting to school and work," Dimick said. "This new station will enhance the experience of using the trail for both residents and visitors to the area."

The MLK Equality Trail is Jackson's main pedestrian trail. The primary section of this four-mile paved trail network starts in Downtown Jackson, going through several south and west side residential neighborhoods before transitioning at Weatherwax Drive in Summit Township. This is where the trail turns into Jackson County's Falling Waters Trail, which can be used to reach Lime Lake County Park and the Village of Concord.

Jackson County Animal Shelter's Adoptable Pets: Shark Tank and Mansion

Contributed by the Jackson County Animal Shelter

Shark Tank

Shark Tank is a four-year-old American Staffordshire mix who came in as a stray. The first thing you'll notice about him is his vibrant brindle striping. He is housetrained and enjoys going for walks. Shark Tank is curious, friendly, and not much of a barker. After some exercise, he loves to come inside and just plop down. Dog adoptions require an application, which you can find online here. The availability date is when the dog becomes JCAS property; however, any necessary medical procedures may cause a slight delay in the adoption process. A mandatory meet & greet with your dog is essential. A cat room walk-through is available to test reactions. Dogs will be placed with approved applicants, and the adoption fee is $150 for medium/large dogs and $250 for puppies/small dogs, which includes vaccinations, microchip, and sterilization.

Jackson County Animal Shelter

Mansion

Meet Mansion, a two-year-old brown tiger who came in as a pregnant stray. She has been in a foster home where she gave birth to kittens, and now all of her kittens have grown up and been adopted. Mansion is now hoping for a forever home of her own. She is definitely a social girl—when you open her door, she is right there to greet you with head bumps, purring, and circling around your legs. Stop by and meet this beautiful girl today at the Jackson County Animal Shelter, 3370 Spring Arbor Rd., Jackson, Michigan. Cat adoption fees are $60 for one cat, $80 for two, which will include applicable tests, vaccines and spay/neutering. Any necessary medical procedures may slightly postpone an adoption. While visiting the shelter is always recommended, you can also submit an online cat application here, fax it to 517-780-4750, or email it to animalshelter@mijackson.org. For more information, visit our website at mijackson.org/579/Animal-Shelter. Find us on Facebook or view all pets on Petango.com-Shelter Details. Current Shelter Hours: Mon, Tue, Wed, Fri 10:00-4:30, Thu 10-7, Sat 10-4:30.

Meet Scooby, our charming four-year-old male dog ready to find his forever home. Weighing just over 60 lbs, Scooby has a beautiful short brindle and brown coat that complements his vibrant personality. This big, happy lover boy enjoys treats and outdoor activities, making him an ideal companion for someone with an active lifestyle. Fully prepared for his new family, Scooby is neutered, microchipped, vaccinated, and Heartworm negative. His adoption fee is normally $310, but for the month of September, Lamers Heating and Air Conditioning are generously sponsoring her adoption fees. Scooby is available come, first-served, with the last adoption processed at 5:30 PM, and walk-ins are always prioritized. Come meet Scooby and see if he's the perfect fit for your home!

Art & Culture: Part of What Makes a Community

By Val Herr

What makes a community? Is it the people? Is it local businesses? Is it the opportunities available to people and businesses?

A community is defined as “a group of people with a common characteristic or interest living together within a larger society.”

I think a community is all of the above and more. You cannot have people living somewhere that doesn't offer employment, businesses to shop from, and opportunities to enrich one's life. Jackson is filled with amazing people, businesses, and opportunities. As a person who has worked in communities outside of Jackson, I can tell you that the arts and culture Jackson offers are some of the most vibrant, diverse, and accessible that I have ever seen.

If you are interested in local history, Jackson has 12 museums. Interested in art classes? Look no further than Kate's Art School, Jackson School of the Arts, Ella Sharp Museum, and Essa Arts. Love art but cannot draw a stick figure? Check out the galleries at Ella Sharp and Art634. There is truly something for everyone of every age and every skill level.

Art and culture do not just happen. It takes people who are dedicated to ensuring art remains vibrant, relevant, and accessible. None of this can occur without your support. While we are still months away from Christmas start planning now on how you can support these wonderful artists, museums, galleries, and schools. Buying someone a gift certificate so they can take a class is a great way to support them. Shop locally and buy handmade one-of-a-kind items for those on your lists. Take a chance, indulge in self-care, and take a class yourself. Buy a membership for yourself or your loved ones. If we want arts and culture to remain an important part of Jackson, we all need to do our part to ensure our community is a great place to live, work, and play.

Reintroducing Sweet Baby: Imagine Planet's Most Outgoing Animal Ambassador

By Jean McKim,
Imagine Planet

I last wrote about Sweet Baby in April of 2017, and I think it is time to revisit our most outgoing animal ambassador. She was new to us in April of 2017, and we have certainly gotten to know her since then. Sweet Baby is a lesser sulfur crested cockatoo, and at the time, we were told she was between 9 and 16 years old. That would make her between 16 and 23 years old now. Sulfur-crested cockatoos can live up to 70 years in captivity and are demanding pets. Everyone who meets Sweet Baby wants to take her home, but that would probably be a big mistake.

Cockatoos need to chew wood and make a very loud squawking noise. They can be very needy and frankly are like having a toddler. They can attach to one person and be aggressive to everyone else, especially during mating season. They leave behind them a fine powder of white dust, which can worsen allergy symptoms or breathing difficulty. This is not a bird that will be happy sitting alone at home; they are very intelligent and can figure out locks and latches.

Sweet Baby is an exception to the one-person rule. She loves many people and is so fond of human led to her plucking her feathers out, and she still does. This is a result of an addiction to a brain chemical given off during plucking, and when we pet her, she gets a similar buzz. So

In their native land, they are sometimes considered pests and have adapted to living in suburban areas. I can't imagine how loud a flock of these birds would be. Sweet Baby makes birds whose owners' circumstances have changed or who did not realize how noisy, destructive, and demanding these cockatoos can be. Before getting any animal, be sure to do your research and know how long the commitment can be. Many of these large parrots are written into their owner's will.

Sweet Baby loves unsalted peanuts in the shell, almonds in the shell, and anything that she can tear apart. Come visit her at Imagine Planet, open 12 to 5 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. As always, admission is free.

We are shaping up our fall calendar, and in September, we will be having a special Rocks and Minerals Day on September 21 from 12 to 5 p.m. This will feature activities about the rock cycle, identifying minerals, and an opportunity to bring in that rock you have for identification.

Keep an eye out for updates about our Snake Day on October 5 with a special visit from Bobo the boa constrictor and our National Fossil Day celebration on October 19.

attention that just about anyone can pet her, even small children (with supervision, of course). We believe this is a result of her past trauma of being left alone in a garage two owners ago. This experience when she gets lots of petting, she plucks less.

The scientific name of this cockatoo is Cacatua galerita. They originally come from Australia, New Guinea, and some of the islands of Indonesia.

enough noise for me!

Many of these large birds end up outliving their owners. As with many of our animals at Imagine Planet, they end up needing a home. Zoos cannot keep up with the supply of
