Program Requirements

Are you willing to feed, water, shelter, and monitor the cats as long as you live here?
 Yes  No

Do you understand the cats will be returned to your colony after they are spayed/neutered?  Yes  No

Are you willing to keep the cat(s) confined in a trap on your property in a garage, on a porch or deck, or other safe area prior to and after the surgery?  Yes  No  If no, please explain. _____

Do you understand that it may take more than one attempt by volunteers to trap the cats of the colony and agree to work to accommodate volunteer/veterinary clinic schedules?
 Yes  No

Do you agree to spay/neuter all cats and kittens before the cats/kittens are re-homed (if applicable)?  Yes  No

Are you willing to try and trap/neuter/return ALL cats/kittens in the colony if SNACK volunteers are unable to complete your project (because of hard-to-catch, trap-wary cats, schedule conflicts, or weather conditions)?  Yes  No

I have read the Frequently Asked Questions about the Trap/Neuter/Return program on the SNACKOhio website, www.snackohio.org. I understand failure to follow the recommendations of the volunteers regarding my project will lead to the termination of SNACK's volunteer assistance and financial help.  Yes  No

We are an all-volunteer organization and veterinary expenses are paid through fund-raising efforts of our volunteers, private donations, and grants. Our volunteers receive no compensation for their time or travel expenses.

We do not charge for our services. but if you can donate money to help us with the cost of spay/neuter surgery, volunteer to help trap or transport cats to the veterinarian, or help by recycling aluminum cans and metals, we welcome the support. Any type of assistance helps us to continue to help others with abandoned cats and kittens. Please indicate:

I can _____ donate money _____ volunteer to help _____ recycle my aluminum cans.
