

Protocols For Unusual S* During High School Games

Calgary High School – Rocky View – Foothills

Reporting Unsportsmanlike, Technical, and Disqualifying Fouls

- Ensure scorekeepers record Personal Fouls with a P, Technicals with a T, Unsportsmanlike Fouls with a U, and Disqualifying Fouls with a D
- Brief the scorekeepers prior to tip-off
- During play, report all fouls properly and clearly:
 - “White 6 - Unsportsmanlike Foul, C-2, excessive contact - two free throws and possession for Black”

Player Disqualifications (ejections)

- Players are disqualified (ejected) for:
 - Two Unsportsmanlike fouls (of any kind)
 - Two Technical fouls (of any kind)
 - A U-foul combined with a Technical
 - One Disqualifying foul
 - Five Fouls = “exclusion” (different than disqualification)

Reporting U/T/D Fouls

- Use breaks or Time Outs to ensure scorekeepers have recorded U/T fouls correctly and that U-fouls are classified on the back of the sheet – especially C-2's
 - Rocky View is suspending players who accumulate three C2 U-fouls, even if there is no disqualification involved
- If you call a C-2 in a Rocky View league game – fill out an incident report ASAP after the game

Disqualified Players Are Not Always Required To Leave The Gym

- Disqualified players can stay on the bench when:
 - Two U-fouls, a U-foul and a Technical, or regular five fouls
- Players must leave the gym if Disqualified for:
 - Two Technical Fouls (for unsportsmanlike conduct)
 - A Disqualifying Foul
 - You feel it is necessary for the player to leave the gym
- Players/coaches sent out of the gym will be suspended by their league

Coach Disqualifications (ejections)

- Coaches are disqualified (ejected) for:
- A Disqualifying Foul
- Two “Coach” Technical Fouls
- One “Coach” Technical Foul combined with two “Bench” Technical Fouls
- Disqualified coaches must ALWAYS leave the gym

Dealing with Parents and Spectators

- Meet the gym supervisor(s) before the game
 - Refresh/discuss protocols for policing the stands
- Professionalism at ALL TIMES before/during/afterward
- Avoid “rabbit ears” and allow spontaneous reactions
- If a spectator needs to be addressed – locate the gym supervisor and direct them to the offending person
- Continue to reclaim the high ground

After the game – YOU MUST DO THE FOLLOWING

- Ensure U-fouls and Technicals are properly recorded on the scoresheet
- Ensure Technicals are explained on the back of the scoresheet – were they for unsportsmanlike conduct?
- Ensure C-2 U-Fouls (excessive contact, rough play) on the back of the scoresheet
- Explain any disqualifications on back of the scoresheet

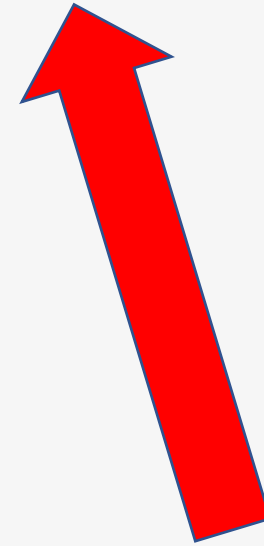

When To Fill Out An Incident Report at www.cboa.ca

- When a player gets a C-2 Unsportsmanlike Foul in a Rocky View League Game (3 C-2's = suspension)
- When you eject a player or coach from the game
- When you have a spectator removed from the gym
- When you experience any actions that jeopardized the referees' safety before, during, or after the game

HS Tournament Games

When you eject players/coaches/parents . . .

Ejections/DQ's during HS Tournaments

- Players disqualified from a tournament game must sit out their team's next game IF the DQ is for:
 - A Disqualifying Foul
 - Two Technical Fouls for unsportsmanlike conduct
 - Two C-2 Unsportsmanlike Fouls
 - A combination of a C-2 U-foul and a Technical Foul for unsportsmanlike conduct

Ejections/DQ's during HS Tournaments

- Players disqualified from a tournament game are NOT required to sit out the next game IF the DQ is for:
 - Five fouls (even if one is a U-foul or a T)
 - Two non-conduct T's (delay of game, etc.)
 - Two Unsportsmanlike Fouls that ARE NOT BOTH C-2
 - C-1/C-3/C-4/C-5 + C-2 = DQ but no suspension

When You Have a DQ in a Tournament Game:

- Ensure all U/T fouls are recorded properly AND specifics of ejection on the back of the scoresheet
- After your games – check the schedule and note where/when the team's next game is
- ASAP – fill out an online incident report – remember to include the date/time of the offending team's next game in the written details space provided
