

The PCG Difference

*At PCG, we exist to serve your unique needs when you have reached the pinnacle of your career, and are in need of tailored, well thought-out strategies. When you reach the top tier, cookie cutter approaches simply don't work. You need a team of financial professionals and advisors who understands the complexities, nuances and rules governing the accumulation and protection of your wealth. PCG is that firm.

First and foremost, our focus is to work together with you to create the best possible plan of action to ensure financial, professional and personal security. PCG collaborates with and guides a team made up of your other professionals, such as the accountant, insurance specialists, and attorney to work collaboratively together and create a consistent approach to the individual's strategy.

With this approach, PCG facilitates a client centered focus, working together to maximize the same dollar. We coordinate quarterly meetings with your team and other advisors to make sure your actions are aligned with your goals and objectives.
