

Naples Art Factory:

Abstract Art: Synesthetic Mark-Making

Allowing Music to Sway Your Hand

This class offers attendees an insight into synesthesia and how music plays a pivotal role in swaying the soul and hand in creating an aesthetic abstract artwork.

Instructor: Dani Papanikolaou

@papanikolaou.dani

Objectives

To understand synesthesia and how artists use music to create visual manifestations.

To learn about color theory and line weights in conjunction with abstract art.

To practice mark-making to different genres of music.

Education Level

Basic to Intermediary

- Attendees will listen to an array of genres and instructed how to expressively make marks to the music using a variety of materials and medium.

Materials

Mixed Media Paper

Graphite Pencils

Charcoal

Paint Markers

Acrylic Paint

Watercolor

Pen and Ink

Brushes (assortment)

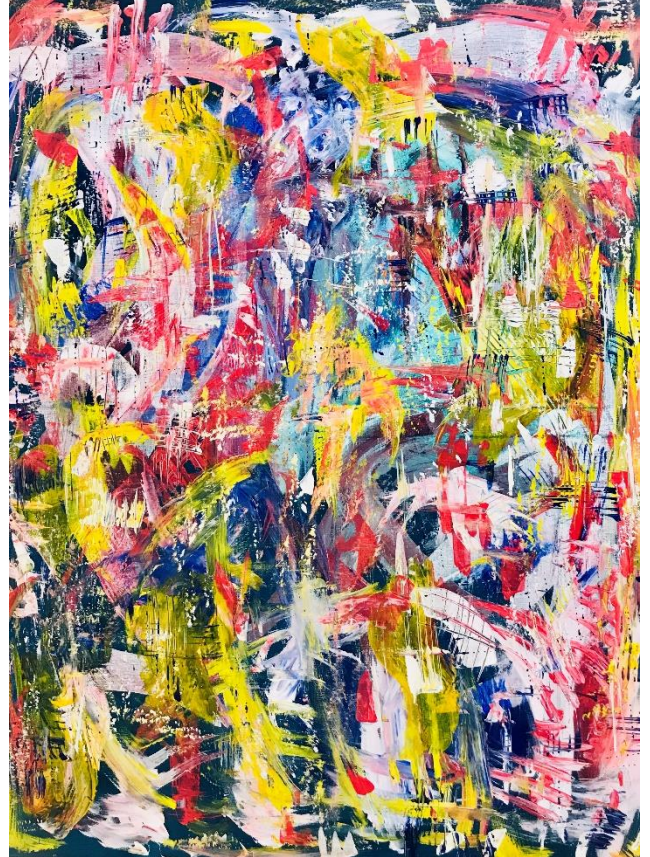

Various Tools (for detailing)

Skills

- Attendees will learn the following:
 - What is Synesthesia and what does it look like?
 - Practice to various genres of music to sway the hand.
 - Develop a growth from improv to instinct.
 - Apply learnt knowledge about color theory to the surface.

NAPLES ART FACTORY

Examples:

Examples: