Dr. Jovan Jackson

Financial Coach of Hope

I am on a mission to bring Good News & Hope by assisting as many families as possible to become financially independent, and build safe and secure retirements and legacies for generations. My personal mission is to live a life of significance and impact, and to earn as many heavenly crowns as possible.

Dr. Jovan Jackson, known as the Financial Coach of Hope, is a faith filled Author and licensed financial & Insurance advisor who serves as the president of Good News Financial & Investment Advisors LLC, a registered Investment Advisory Firm in the state of MD. Jovan develops financial programs and insurance strategies to assist clients in the areas of Debt Elimination, Tax reduction, retirement planning, asset preservation, and long-term care alternatives.

After serving in the Army with the Military Intelligence Corp. as a Morse Operator, Jovan worked as a systems administrator with the Department of Defense. During that time Jovan started investing in real estate as early as 20 years old, and earned her Maryland residential real estate license. Helping families prepare for homeownership later led her to financial services.

Drawing on 15 years of experience and now working with major companies, Jovan has gained a unique perspective on tending to her client's individual financial needs and concerns. As an independent advisor, her holistic approach allows her to utilize the services of elder law attorneys, CPAs and other professionals. Her broad base of knowledge puts her in demand to provide guidance on:

- Creating Tax Favored Retirement Income Plans
- Helping Federal Employees Understand and Maximize Employee Benefits
- Protecting and Preserving Precious Assets and Legacy
- Providing Options to Eliminate Debt in 9yrs or less
- Reducing Estate Taxes and Continuity of Assets to Beneficiaries

Dr. Jovan has used her talents to assist federal government employees to understand and maximize their employee benefits. She has hosted conferences and facilitated workshops for major organizations such as National Treasury Employee Union (NTEU), Federally Employed Women (FEW) and Blacks In Government (B.I.G) Nat'l Coalition of 100 Black Women Inc (NCBW100) to name a few. She has helped business owners create personal and affordable benefit packages for tax-free supplemental retirement-income.

Jovan Jackson's drive and passion to teach financial literacy has led her to become a sought after wealth manager and advisor in the Baltimore DC metropolitan area. A native of Baltimore, Jovan has been featured on countless radio shows and taught many workshops for private and government corporations, and facilitates in spiritual settings through her economic empowerment ministry.
