"I hope someday to write something worth plagiarizing"

Let's make some flippy floppy this week. I'll start with the Important Non-Fictional Information. Tomorrow night will be the FINAL Official Wednesday Night Scramble of this season. By now you should have at least one of the 12 methods to register down. Do your best to beat the 3:00 sign-up deadline, doing so certainly simplifies everything! Even though I hadn't turned away even one golfer for our weekly game, I do appreciate "Proper Planning & Preparation" After much feedback, we will certainly entertain the idea of "Casual Wednesdays" for the winter months. Those able to get the ball in the air around 3:00 will be sticking around for dessert. I for one wouldn't mind having a few of the more intelligent sex join in the fun. PS- Go ahead and forward this to all the female golfers in your contact list. The more the merrier.

Seldomly do I know any pairings at this time Tuesday night, but I know who will be starting on #1 last night. It's the same team that I foresee walking with a good majority of tomorrow night's hardware. Only to allow you to remove my dudes from your possible draftable list, whilst also foreshadowing our triumphant victory with a record-breaking 9 Under Thunder. I'm merely on the squad for moral support, enough of the suspense. The team to beat tomorrow night is R Kirkman-C Brown-Marky May-Skywalker.

Last week turned up 30 competitors and ended with 30 competitors. Nobody was forced to quit. Which is nice.... Reminiscent of "The Great Concession", there was no shortage of sportsmanship following the round at Creeks 19th. 8 teams total, meant $320 was up for grabs. Making the front page two weeks in a row is Parker Severance after his PW on #17 stopped just 3 feet from the Jar. Playing alongside Parker, Stephen Bukielski's tee shot on 14 was just as saucy, if not saucier. Each fella walked with $30.00. Solid shots fellas. Only one player this season was able to scoop both CTP's in the same evening. The reason I feel like I've known this shotmaker my whole life, it's because I absolutely have! Take note the joy on my pop's face because I assure you both CTPs is something worth cheesing for! Two teams last week logjammed up top with a couple smooth 7 unders. Gamesmanship was on full display as the teams had no issues in splitting the remaining dough. $130 to the Victors.
