

JD Music Studio

Tuition & Fees

PRIVATE LESSONS

- 30 minute lessons $114/month* (most common)
- 45 minute lessons $155/month* (normally students highly focused on music)
- 60 minute lessons $195/month* (normally students who do both piano & voice)

GROUP LESSONS

- 45 minute lessons $60/month* (per student)

GENERAL LESSON DETAILS

- Lessons are weekly and given at my in-home studio, unless other arrangements are made.
- Some months have 4 lessons and some have 5 (depending upon the month and the weekly lesson day). These are the same price, but the fifth week may be considered a make-up week, if needed.
- Students who meet me at schools may not get 4 lessons in some months due to non-school days. Because of this consideration, I waive the Travel Fee for these students. (see below)

GROUP LESSON DETAILS

- Groups are made up of 3-5 students
- Lessons are 45 minutes long per week, total
- Students are encouraged to form a group and then contact me
- If a student is interested in group lessons, he or she may need to wait until there are enough individuals.

TRAVEL FEE

- If you would like your lesson to be at a different location than my in-home studio, a travel fee of between $10-$20 will be added to the price of monthly tuition. The fee will depend upon the distance traveled each week.

SHEET MUSIC

- Students are expected to buy their own sheet music.
  - Whenever possible, I will loan out sheet music from my own library.
  - Since I go to the music store often, sometimes, I will buy the sheet music and be reimbursed by the student.
  - Other times, I will give the student information to buy it on their own.
- Students should bring their sheet music to every lesson. Two (2) copies of the music are helpful so that we each have a copy in front of us.

RECITAL FEE

- In lieu of ticket sales, a Spring Recital Fee will be assessed of $10-$20 per student. The exact amount will be set once the location has been secured for the Spring Recital.

*a discount of $10/month is given if full payment is received before or on the 15th of each month
