Tony's Thoughts

Trust and Obey

There's a beautiful song we sing in church, "Trust and Obey," such a wonderful message and easy to remember. Hearing what our God expects from us and doing what God wants us to do is two very different things. We can sit and hear the preacher teach all day, but actually applying God's word in our daily life can be difficult for some. Do we not trust in God? We can see God's power in Genesis 1, as God made the heavens and earth, light and darkness, and the entire world around us. Knowing that our God loves us but along with that, He wants us to trust in Him and obey what He has set before us. In Exodus 14:31, God is reminding Israel of what He did to the Egyptians, by setting them free after many years in bondage. 1 John 4:7-11 describes God's love for all man. He loves everyone on this earth and hopes that everyone will be saved. God sent His only Son to die on the cross, but with that death comes salvation. We need to trust in God's salvation, Isaiah 12:2, "Behold, God is my salvation, I will trust, and not be afraid. For the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song, He also is become my salvation." (KJV). Trusting in God is only the beginning, yes we see His love and our hope of salvation but it doesn't stop there. We must obey what He has told us to do. We can see in Exodus 20:2-17, dealing with the Ten Commandments, and also in John 13:34-35, as Jesus laid forth a New Commandment to "love" which is key to life. Trust and obey what our Lord has told us to do and we will have that hope of spending eternity with Him.

The Wednesday evening adult class has completed their study of Romans that Clyde was teaching. Tony will now be leading the adult class and giving Clyde an overdue break.

We were blessed to have Tony's mother, Esmeralda, and two of her grandchildren (other than Addi!), Joseph and Olivia, visiting with us a few weeks ago.

It was a treat to have Marcus and Melissa back with us after their trip to see their granddaughters and their parents. In their absence, the duty of Marcus' van route on Wednesday evenings fell to Tony. But since Tony no longer has a valid Texas license because it expired while living out of state and during Covid, he navigated and Kati stepped up to the plate and drove that van. Tony will soon take his test for his new license, but we're grateful that Kati got totally out of her comfort zone and drove the van. Never say never.....and thanks Lopez's!
