Tony's Thoughts

A Light to Share

Every Christian that is born of God has a light to share. The question we should be asking ourselves is, have we shared our light this past year? Have we told others about God's Word? With the upcoming year, are we going to make the effort to share what God has given us? In the book of Psalm 119:29-30 says, "Your testimonies are wonderful. Therefore my soul keeps them. The entrance of Your words gives light, It gives understanding to the simple." (NKJV). The unfolding of God's word equips the simple who need instruction to discern between right and wrong. Paul tells young Timothy (2 Timothy 3:16-17) that all Scripture is given by the inspiration of God. Paul lists that God's word will instruct, and it's profitable for correction, reproof, instruction in righteousness, that we may be equipped and complete for every good work. God's word can truly equip us with all that we need. The Bible tells us how to treat others, how we ought to live our lives, what one must do in order to be saved to have that hope with God in heaven. Jesus, who is our King, Lord of Lords has told us to let our light shine before men. In the book of Matthew 5:14-16, Jesus tells the people, "You are the light of the world." He goes on to encourage them not to hide the light, but yet put it on a "lampstand," and by doing so it will truly give light to all. As we strive to live for our God we should let all people to see the light that is in us. By doing so maybe they will be drawn to the light and hopefully one day too they can become a child of God. And as Jesus ends this statement in verse 16, He tells us where the glory belongs; it always belongs to God (Colossians 3:16-17).

Our White Elephant Christmas Party at church was lots of fun...and ended up being a "pick on Emilio" kind of night, too! Thankfully, Emilio was a great sport and seemed to keep getting gifts that someone else just couldn't pass up!

The ladies met at Kati's and had just as much fun at our ornament exchange, too. The food and fellowship was awesome!
