

Port Summer Show a Success

To The Editor:

The Port Summer Show would like to thank all those who contributed to the success of George M. We especially want to thank Robert Harding Real Estate, the Port Washington Youth Council, Schreiber Student Government, Schreiber HSA, Parents Council, Weber, Sousa, Manorhaven, Daly and Guggenheim HSA's for their support of our productions.

We would also like to thank Ben and Jerry's for donating ice cream for our concessions on Friday and Saturday. It added to the festivity on two hot August nights. Thanks also to Alper's and Shields Hardware for donating supplies and to all the thrift shops that helped with the costuming. We appreciate the support of all the local businesses that advertised in our program.

On behalf of the entire Board of the Port Summer Show, I would like to express deep gratitude to Debby Super, Dennis McCullough and Kendall Walsh who worked so hard for so many weeks to produce beautiful, colorful performances.

Congratulations to Mardi Braun, Cam Gelb and Phil Glover, our very talented and dedicated staff. The extra time spent with the cast was greatly appreciated. We would like to thank Ann Kopple, our set designer; Manu Klein for lending some of her costumes; the Gambol for fabric and trims; Ron and Chris Meadows for their help with lights, sound, and a million other small favors. We would also like to thank all the parents, friends, and Summer Show Alumni who helped backstage and in the orchestra. We want to thank all the custodians who were patient with the exuberance of 75 teenagers night after night. We thank too, Dr. Heebink, who has encouraged us from the very beginning.

In conclusion, we would like to thank two more special groups. First, our audiences, who suffered the heat to fill up the house. We know you had fun with us. Last, but certainly not least, we want to thank all the teenagers who took part in the show either as cast, crew or orchestra. Your hard work and enthusiasm made you a pleasure to work with. It was gratifying for us to see you dance, hear you sing, and see how wonderful you all looked. Hope you had a fun summer!

Bess Mulvihill, President
