

Auditions For Port Summer Show

Hey kids! If you're in grades 6 - 12, a Port Washington resident, enjoy being on stage, or like helping out behind the scenes, and have your evenings free this summer, then come join the Port Summer Show's production of How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. The performance is scheduled for August 10 - 13. Calls are for cast, crew, orchestra and production staff. Adults willing to volunteer their time this summer are also encouraged to join the fun.

We are happy to announce that Mardi Braun and Cam Gelb will be returning this year as Co-Directors and Phil Glover will again be our Musical Director. We've had two very successful years of a student-adult partnership for all phases in the production of our shows and will continue it this year. We are seeking students to assist in all aspects of developing a show, from management to make-up, choreography to cast and props to publicity.

An Audition Workshop will be held Monday, May 21 at 7 p.m. in the Sousa School Auditorium. Here students will learn about the show, the music, the dancing, etc. They will go over lines, songs and dances that they will do for auditions. Auditions will be held on the following evening, Tuesday, May 22 also at 7 p.m. in the Sousa Auditorium. Students may audition on Tuesday whether or not they have participated in the Workshop. The show has a large cast with many opportunities for singing, dancing, acting and behind the scenes crew for everyone. For further information call Pat Blumlein 883-3564 or Bess Mulvihill 767-1180.
