

Watch Out For The Music Man

At 8 p.m. on Friday through Monday, Aug. 9-12, Port Summer Show is proud to present this year's hit production, The Music Man. Filled with singing, laughter, dancing and a wonderful story, the characters will come alive in the Schreiber High School auditorium.

The scene is set at the turn-of-the-century in a small, unsuspecting town in Iowa, which is turned upside down by Harold Hill, a flim-flam man, (Andrew Ullman) who helped by an old buddy, Marcellus (Mike McCollum), attempt to sell band instruments to the entire town, whether they need them or not. With fast and smooth talking he tries to persuade the men, including the reputable Mayor Shinn (Matt Epstein), and the prudent School Board Members (Matt Dallesandro, Jordana Glantz, Nathaniel Hodes, Michael Johanson, Karin Johnson and Matthew Sadowsky), that they must have a town band to save the children from the temptations of society. The charm he has for the ladies is unmatched by anyone. With unending flattery he has them believing anything he says. Even the pompous Eulalie Shinn (Heather Scheiber), her friend Ethel Toffelmier (Ariel Nazryan), and Mrs. Paroo (Jen Goldberg) have been won over by Harold Hill. Only the eligible Marion Paroo
