History of Port Summer Show

The Port Summer Show was formed in January, 1987, to continue a tradition of teen summer theater that was established by Ron and Pam Meadows in 1972. After their last production in August, 1986, a group of parents and representatives of local organizations met to see if there was any way to insure continuity of this activity. With major financial support from Robert L. Harding Real Estate and the United Community Chest of Port Washington, and with the cooperation of the Adult and Continuing Education Program of the Port Washington School District, the Port Summer Show became a member of the Port Washington Youth Council and produced its first show, Barnum, in August, 1987.

The officers of the Port Summer Show annually hire a Director and Musical Director. In addition, nearly 50 adults are involved with the production as volunteers. Every year approximately 75 Port Washington teenagers from grades 7 through 12 participate in the Port Summer Show as cast, crew or production assistants. This adult/youth partnership creates and continues the tradition of quality theater productions in Port Washington. Many of the teens who participate in these productions continue to be involved in theater as college students and adults.

As the Port Summer Show celebrates its 7th production, Starmites, it especially wants to thank those who founded the Port Summer Show: Bess Mulvihill, Lee Healy, Cheryl Kirmser, Tertia Wallace, Tegwen Epstein, Nancy Wright, Regina Farinaccio, Pat Blumlein, Kendall Walsh and Dr. Karen Osterman.

Who's Who

Pamela Meadows

Director/Choreographer

Pam is very pleased to return once again as the Director/Choreographer of the Port Summer Show. In 1972, Pam and her husband, Ron, answered the requests of Port Washington teenagers for a summer theater program. They created the Teen Summer Theater and served as Director and Producer for 15 years. In 1977, for this program and other youth related activities, such as the Annual Main Street School Children's Show, Pam and Ron were given the Community Chest Citizen of the Year Award. A lifelong resident and Schreiber graduate, Pam is proud to note that her son, Christopher, who literally grew up with the Teen Summer Theater, went on to become a member of the Executive Board of the Port Summer Show. In this twenty-second year of continuous production, Pam expresses her hope that this is a Port Washington tradition which will go on for years and years to come!

Erika Felker

Musical Director

Erika is very happy to be a part of this year's Port Summer Show and has really enjoyed working with the many talented students involved.

Erika is an orchestra teacher in the Port Washington School District, and is presently teaching at Weber J.H.S. and Daly Elementary School.

An accomplished cellist, Erika has a Bachelor of Music Degree with High Honors from the Crane School of Music, Potsdam College, Potsdam, NY. One of Erika's favorite things to do is to sing and she enjoyed being part of many choirs in high school and at college.

First, please note that this is not another ad. This is a "thank-you" list, an idea stolen from the root of all evil, Michael Howland. So thank you, Mike. I would also like to thank (in no particular order) the entire cast and especially Marissa, Michele, Sarah, Christina, Natalya, Dave³, Charles (the most harmonious dude I have ever met), Emma, Allison², and everyone else I have accidentally forgotten. Other people that need thanking are mommy and daddy and Ryan, Gram and Pop, all other relatives that trekked here tonight, my wonderful girlfriend Sarah (♥ ya baby), Jimmy at Pazzo (a great restaurant - call 767-7117. It's a shameless plug, but the food is good), the late, great Freddie Mercury and the rest of Queen, Penn and Teller, Dumpy, Mike, Blockhead, Superman, Judy Lesley, the Village People (why did they break up anyway?), the people at the Stove Top factory (if one exists), Barney the Dinosaur for pissing me off every time I turned on the TV, disco (ding, dong, the witch is dead!), Amy and Laura - I wish we could all be back at Pippin together, Lee, Early 80's music, Janet Evans, Benjamin Hoff, Winnie the Pooh, Spin Doctors, Billy Joel, Norm, Coach (R.I.P.), Amy (yes, you), Daniel (good luck in college, dude), Ben and Jerry's because Mike, Jen and I gave your business a whole darn lot, Dana Carvey, Jellyfish, U2 for In God's Country (the best song), U3, ME4, and finally I will end this long sentence. Oose! My heart goes out to Pam, Erika, Shish & Altman for being so sweet, and of course to my bestest friend Jen.

And a very special thanks to you for watching us show off for a night or two. — Jason A. Hare - Homina Homina Hey.
