SUMMER OPERA SERIES at Sands Point Preserve's Historic Hempstead House

The Friends of the Sands Point Preserve present the North Shore Music Festival in three amazing nights of opera: Tosca, August 13; Don Pasquale in English, August 27; and Pagliacci September 17, 2011 – in the historic Hempstead

Musical Director Anthony LaGruth of the North Shore Music Festival

House on the Guggenheim Estate. Audiences will spend elegant evenings in an original Gold Coast mansion with breathtaking views of the Long Island Sound, as world-class opera singers perform these great works in the Palm Court "piazza". Tosca will feature the Wurlitzer Opus 442 Theatre Organ – one of the estate's great treasures.

Each evening starts at 7 pm with a pre-concert light dinner paired with select wines, included in the ticket price of $75 (discounts for three or more tickets). Guests are invited to tour the newly renovated Guggenheim Gardens and meet the acclaimed artists performing in the operas. The concerts begin at 8 pm, with dessert at approximately 9:30 pm. A portion of the ticket price is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law.

For ticket information, to place an advertisement in the Summer Opera Series playbill, to become a series sponsor, and to support the mission of the Friends of the Sands Point Preserve, please see www.thesandspointpreserve.com, call 516-571-7901 or email spreserve@gmail.com.

Port Summer Show Presents "42nd Street" August 4-7, 2011

Port Washing-ton's summer teen theater troupe proudly presents The Port Summer Show 42nd Street from Thurs., Aug. 4 - Sun., Aug. 7, in the air-conditioned Schreiber High School auditorium. This Tony award winning musical, takes place in 1930s New York, includes such hits as "We're in the Money," "Shuffle Off to Buffalo," and "Lullaby of Broadway."

The Port Summer Show production stars Molly Ronis, Kevin Roberts, Julia Bain, Sara Lyons, Annabelle May,

Christopher Falcioni, Jesse Weil, and Sage Viscovi. Many of the graduating seniors are planning to pursue careers in the arts. 42nd Street will be directed by Jason Summers, an award-winning member of the Society of Stage Directors and Choreographers. Floryn Glass, a graduate of Schreiber and Skidmore College, and a PSS alumna, returns to choreograph this year's production. Jean Regan will return as musical director and Solomon Hoffman, now studying at Columbia University, returns for his eighth year and will once again conduct the orchestra.

To celebrate the 40th production, anyone who has been involved with a past summer show (cast, crew, pit, parent volunteers, directors, choreographers, musical directors, etc.) is invited to mingle with old friends over light refreshments before the Saturday performance from 6:30 - 7:30 pm. Then, watch this year's production and support the current members of the show. Join the Port Summer Show Alumni group on Facebook to share old memories and stay in touch!

The Port Summer Show, a not for profit, volunteer-run organization, presents a top quality musical every summer and provides students with a unique opportunity to be involved in all phases of theatre production. This year's show is made possible by the generosity of Robert and Jane Harding of Harding Real Estate and is produced by Susan Hoffman and Elisabeth Roberts. Performances are Aug. 4 – 6 at 7:30 pm, and a matinee on Aug. 7 at 2 pm at Schreiber High School. Tickets are $10, children under 12 pay half price. Seniors, 65 and over, can attend the Thursday night opening performance for free!
