

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

Thursday, July 13

Blood Drive

The blood drive from 3 to 7:30 p.m. at the Landmark Jeanna Rimsky Theater, 232 Main St. in Port Washington, is in memory of Brittany Barron, the Guggenheim third-grader who died from a severe form of aplastic anemia. Donors need to be between 16-75 years of age (16-year-olds must have parental permission form, 76-plus need doctor's note), weigh at least 110 pounds, haven't donated blood in the past 56 days and be in good health. If you have medical questions about donating blood, call NYBC at 1-800-688-0900 or visit nybc.org. Walk-ins are always welcome at any time. A donor card or photo/signature ID is required. Eat well and drink plenty of fluids before donating.

Friday, July 14

Sandwiched In

"What's All That Jazz?" Music educator Shenole Latimer discusses and performs the quintessential American music from 12:15 to 2 p.m. at the Port Washington Public Library.

Scrabble

Join fellow residents in a game of Scrabble from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Port Washington Public Library.

Great Holidays

The Port Washington Public Library will show Independence Day from 3 to 5 p.m. The national holiday celebrating the founding of the United States was instituted after the Civil War, in an attempt to bring together a divided population and heal the wounds of war. Presented by Dr. Ronald J. Brown.

Port Summer Show Cast getting ready for the 2016 production

Made possible by the Friends of the Library.

Saturday, July 15

Port Summer Show Car Wash

Port Summer Show's Musical Car Wash will be from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. at St. Stephen's Church on Main Street. Help support Port Washington's talented student actors, stage crew and musicians by stopping by the best and most musical car wash and tag sale in town. And save the date for All Shook Up; performances will be Aug. 3 to 6 in the air conditioned and newly renovated Schreiber High School auditorium. With Elvis Presley songs such as "Heartbreak Hotel," "Love Me Tender," "Can't Help Falling In Love" and a story based on Shakespeare's Twelfth Night, All Shook Up promises to be unforgettable. Tickets are $10 for adults; kids 12 and under are $5. Senior citizens attend for free on Thursday, Aug. 3. For information:

www.portsummershow.org or visit the Port Summer Show Facebook page.

Broken Road

A tribute band to Rascal Flatts, Broken Road, will perform at 7:30 p.m. at Manorhaven Beach Park. The concert is free. Bring a chair and a picnic. For information or the rain date, call 311.

Sunday, July 16

Ring of Fire

Ring of Fire, a tribute to Johnny Cash, will perform at North Hempstead Beach Park at 1 p.m. as part of the Sunday Afternoons at the Beach series. The rain date is set for July 22. Parking fees apply.

Monday, July 17

Afternoon On Broadway

In Carousel, Rodgers and Hammerstein tell the story of a carnival drifter's search for redemption. Marc Courtade discusses the classic show and its many memorable songs from 3 to 4:45 p.m. at the Port Washington Library.

James Cagney Birthday

The Port Washington Public Library will show the crime drama Sinners' Holiday (1930-60 min.), James Cagney's screen debut, in honor of his birthday from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Tuesday, July 18

Chess

Join in a game of chess at the Port Washington Public Library from 2 to 4 p.m.

Sports Pages

The Arm: Inside the Billion Dollar Mystery of the Most Valuable Commodity in Sports. Keith Klang leads a discussion of Jeff Passan's book, which examines the role of pitchers in Major League Baseball and the vulnerability of pitching arms. The group will also talk all things baseball, including the state of the Yankees and Mets. This is part one of a four-part series covering the four major American sports leagues. Copies of the book are available at the Information Desk of the Port Washington Public Library. The discussion will run from 7 to 9 p.m.

Wednesday, July 19

Main Street Live

Landmark on Main is picking up right where they left off, with a roster of well-known artists from rock and folk to kids, comedy and Broadway. This year's lineup will also include a new focus on jazz and soul artists. Tickets to 2017-18 events go on sale to the general public at 12 p.m.

Podcasts For The Perplexed

Audio entertainment and learning is exploding and the choices are nearly unlimited. Podcasts—episodic audio shows that you stream or download—are available for every interest and age group, and high-quality audio-books are easier than ever to access. A group of PWPL staff experts will explain what's out there, how to get it and how to listen at home and on the go at 2:30 p.m. at the Port Washington Public Library.

Port Summer Show car wash

FOR MORE PHOTOS AND THE LATEST UPDATES ON YOUR LOCAL NEWS AND EVENTS, VISIT

PortWashington-News.com

facebook.com/PortWashingtonNews

@PortNewsLI