Summer Theater In Port

The following is a portion of the article which was originally printed in "Portfolio of Homes, June 1988". Now celebrating our 45th Anniversary, we are proud to still be bringing the excitement of musical theater to Port Washington teens!

There was once a girl in Port Washington (her name was Kathe O'Connor) who, not being from a nautical tennis-playing family, said "There is nothing creative to do in Port in the summer!"

Fortunately, she said it to the young woman who had been directing the winter children's show for Play Troupe, Port's regular theater group.

The woman was Pam Meadows and she relayed this cry of teen-age ennui to her husband who was on the board of the Bandshell Committee which sponsored Port's summer band shows. Between them, they persuaded Play Troupe, and the Bandshell, to sponsor Port's first Teen Theater production.

So from that cry was born a tradition - summer theater in Port Washington.

The first show, in 1972, was "Anything Goes".

"We had no money so we improvised everything. We used cyclone fences with muslin drops for the scenery - for every scene change, we just flipped over the next sheet of muslin," said Ron Meadows who produced the shows and designed the sets.

"The Bandshell is right by the water and 'Anything Goes' is a nautical show, so the sea in the background supplied plenty of atmosphere," added Pam.

Ron created a tower from plumbers' piping and Brook Electric put in a power outlet. Ron had six lights to aim at the stage.

The next year was "Bye Bye

Birdie" - and eight lights! One night there were 1,000 people crowded onto the green to see the show and the Meadows realized they needed better stage facilities.

By the fourth year, the Adult Education Department of the Port school system invited them to perform in the Schreiber High School Auditorium.

Then, in keeping with the ups and downs of show business, Austerity struck. The school board's budget failed to pass which meant all the "frills" were cut out and the show could only go on if it paid its own way.

"It's not that we lacked sponsors," said Ron Meadows, "it's just that we wanted sponsors who would let us do things our way."

Teen Theater policy was always that the kids do as much as possible themselves - make and paint the scenery, make their own costumes or find them in local thrift shops (though some parents, mothers mostly, have been known to wield a dab needle), and help with production, publicity, and ticket sales.

Although the summer theater has always been low budget, production fees have to be paid for, as well as script rentals, and in the throes of austerity, custodial fees had to be paid when the Schreiber auditorium was used.

Eventually, some parents found benefactors for the show - I.B.M. (who owns a golf club in Port) and the Robert L. Harding Real Estate firm. Since 1980 Robert Harding has been a regular benefactor.

In spite of the constant struggle for sufficient funds, the Teen Theater went from strength to strength.

Kids can take part the summer they finish sixth grade and if they catch the "theater bug" they can do it every summer until they finish High School.

Plenty of kids have been through seven Teen Theater productions, starting in the chorus and working their way into bigger and better parts as they got older.

For the fifteenth summer, the Meadows put on a full-fledged "Peter Pan" with an instructor from Foy Inventor-prises sprinkling a little fairy dust, so to speak, to help Peter and the Darling children fly to Never-Never Land.

The show was the last in the galaxy of "smash hits" which included "Guys and Dolls", "Oliver", "Grease", and "Annie". It was the fifteenth show, and Pam and Ron both said "Enough".

The threat of no more Teen Theater caused a minor panic among that segment of Port's population for whom it had become a way of life.

Everyone possible was recruited - the Port Washington Youth Council, the School Board in the guise of Adult Education, Bob Harding, of course, and I.B.M. again. But who was going to direct, who to produce?

Directing talent was hired from outside Port which proved that even with the best intentions, it's tough to do this particular job if you commute from the city each day.

Since the Teen Theater had been the Meadows' "baby", it was decided to change the name slightly. The Port Summer Show went on, with "Bar-num"...

We embrace our 2017 production of "All Shook Up" with the same love, care and passion that started the Port Summer Show in 1972. To Kathe O'Connor, the teenager who sparked it all, we applaud you wherever you are and say, "Break A Leg"!

As your son Jack graduates and you leave the Board of Directors, how can we ever thank you for all that you have done for Port Summer Show? You both arrived with Jack in 2014 for "Urinetown" - what a production to begin your illustrious careers at Port Summer Show - then "Big Fish", "Sweet Charity", "All Shook Up" and now "Curtains". Lou, you started with props and went on to head up the Dad Crew and corral the set builders into a major force of creativity! Theresa, you became the ultimate Prop Manager putting together a wonderful team of parents and then Merchandising Guru and finally Secretary of the Port Summer Show! We will miss your dedication and the joy you bring to every meeting.
Good luck with your next act!

HONORING JASON SUMMERS

"Putting on a musical has got to be the most fulfilling thing a person could ever hope to do."

~ Lieutenant Frank Cioffi, Curtains ~

For 15 years we have had the great fortune of having Jason Summers as the Director of the Port Summer Show. Beginning with Anything Goes in 2004, his passion and joy for theater has been the inspiration for countless incredible performances on the Schreiber stage. Jason's unique talent lies not only in his vision for each show, but in the way he makes every cast member feel valued by encouraging them and giving them their moment to shine. He is beloved by the cast, crew and parents. Putting on a musical has got to be the most fulfilling thing a person could ever hope to do and having Jason as our Director has made it that much more fulfilling.

Jason - You are the Hero of our Story! We look forward to 15 more years of memories, love and lunacy!

With love and gratitude,
Sam DeMarino, Linda Nutter, Sandy Woods, Co-Presidents and
Your Port Summer Show Family
(2004-2018)

A NOTE FROM OUR DIRECTOR

"We're a special kind of people known as show people."
The World We Live In

Actors are funny people. They spend all their time trying desperately to get everyone around them to believe they are someone else. They use an accent, they wear a mustache, they walk with a limp - they use any tool, any trick they can to get you to buy into their illusion. Then, the curtain closes, they take off their mask, and they return to being themselves. Sometimes, if they really succeed, you might not even recognize them when they walk through the stage door, so remarkable was their transformation.

And it isn't just actors. The whole team of designers, crew, and directors are in on this illusion, too. They create the world the actors live in - they tap into your imagination so you can suspend reality for as long as you are in their company. Show business at any level is a world of smoke and mirrors.

But there's something you might not realize. All the magic, all the suspension of disbelief - alright, let's call it what it is - all the phoniness doesn't work if the people behind the masks, hiding in the smoke, aren't truly wonderful and authentic human beings. For fifteen years, the show people of the Port Summer Show have been among the most genuine, down-to-earth and beautiful people I have ever known. The magic that has been created for all the time that I have been involved is due to these remarkable people I get to work with year in and year out. People have certainly come and gone - performers, parents, staff, crew - but though the names change, the kind of people they are never have.

I am proud to say that my collaboration with the Port Summer Show is now the longest-running artistic endeavor of my career. No other group of people have so captured my heart and soul than the show people of Port Washington. To the cast of CURTAINS: You have brought me so much joy this summer. Each time I arrived at rehearsal, there was always a group of you already working, perfecting and making magic. You succeed every year because of your heart, your passion, and your generosity of spirit that have lifted me all these years.

Thank you for being the kind of show people you are. There is no world I would rather live in than the one I get to share with you each summer.

Jason Summers

Jason - I remember that we felt so lucky when you first came to work with us. That you are so wonderful has been a dream come true. Thanks for nurturing and inspiring so many over the years. Nick and Amanda send their love along with mine!

~ Dee Otte, Co-President 2004-2006

Jason - We, the Port Summer Show, are so lucky to have found you. Your kindness and thoughtfulness with all the cast, crew and pit participants was so appreciated. Katie, Patrick, Dave and I consider you a friend. Congratulations on 15 years! Here's to many more. The McCulloh family.

~ Ellen McCulloh, Co-President 2007-2008

When Jason came to the Port Summer Show fifteen years ago (was it really that long ago?) he wasn't much older than the kids themselves. Over the years he's done the incredible -- put on a spectacular show, year after year, that never quite seems like it will come together. But it does, through hard work, magic, and 80s dance warmups. All this and Jason still finds the time to write each cast member a personalized handwritten note, because Summer Show is a little like Olive Garden, when you're here, you're family. Thank you, Jason. Love and Lunacy.

~ Suzanne Foye, Co-President 2007-2009

The only thing that tops working with Jason, "the director", on the Port Summer Show is watching Jason, "the actor", perform! Whether leading the high energy PSS rehearsal warmups, performing in All Shook Up, Nonsense, or opening for Sutton Foster, he lights up the stage. We are so lucky to have had him with us for fifteen wonderful years!

~ Elisabeth Roberts, Co-President 2009-2012

Dear Jason - The Port Summer Show has been so fortunate to have you as our director for the past 15 years! Your dedication to the kids is so genuine and heartfelt and you make each show a magical experience where everyone can shine in their own unique way. Thank you for continuing to make The Port Summer Show a beautiful world with endless possibilities. I am truly grateful and feel blessed to have had you by my side during my time as Co-President. Love,

From starting as a parent helping with costumes through being on the board and as Co-President, I have only known PSS with Jason. What struck me instantly about Jason is his humanity. His inclusive nature makes everyone feel equally important. All are welcome to be on that stage. There are no small parts, no small volunteers. Everyone shines. His amazing generosity in writing a personal note to everyone is unique. Some people collect show programs. I collect notes from Jason. With love and lunacy.

~ Elise May, Co-President 2013-2014

Being part of Port Summer Show means you are part of a family. Even before I became a Co-President, both my girls were part of the family; and Jason was the reason they came back year after year. The enthusiasm Jason shows to each and every child is inspiring. The handwritten personalized letters he gives to each one at the end of each production is heartwarming and beyond special. Getting to know, work and become friends with Jason was an honor and a pleasure, and I can't thank him enough for giving so much of himself to each child in each production, for fifteen wonderful years - he is the heart of the PSS family.

To Our Formidable Parent Crew: Set Production Manager Lou Gilsean, Daniel Alexander, Stacy Helman, Bob Keane, Kavita Nagrani, Chris O'Sullivan, Daniel Salerno, Michael Siskin, Greg Weisburd, Tim Woods - you worked tirelessly night after night to build our spectacular set with smiles on your faces and nail guns in your hands. Thank you!

To Our Prop Goddess & Designer Extraordinaire Leah Siskin: You held two incredibly difficult positions this year creating Curtains' wonderful imagery and producing our incredible props with artful mastery. Wow!

To Our Wardrobe Queen Beth Weisburd: Every night you brought home costumes to alter so that our children could dance and sing with no wardrobe malfunctions. Brava!

To Our Incredible Playbill Team: Dan Gurlitz, Jackie Pietrantonio & Patty Atkins - we cannot thank you enough for your many hours of hard work and inexhaustible energy.

To Our Publicity Head: Stephanie Hall. You crafted the wonderful image of the Port Summer Show and kept us in the news throughout the summer.

To Our Publicity Intern Gabe Lyons - Your professionalism and creativity was clear throughout every video you produced. You will be a major success in the real world and as an alumnus will always hold a special place in the heart of PSS.

Thank you to all of our incredible parent volunteers who have worked so hard chairing our committees, selling ads, chaperoning, selling tag sale items, selling raffles, manning the concessions counter, selling tickets and making sure your kids were here night after night. This is a true co-op and we could not do any of this without all of you.

And finally, to our fellow PSS Board members Theresa Gilsean, Lou Gilsean, Lori Lee, Melissa Welsh, Michael Siskin and Dawn Epp...we spent a full year of hard work, laughs and friendship. Thank you for your hours of dedication.

Much love,
 Sam DeMarino, Linda Nutter & Sandy Woods

PAST PRODUCTIONS

Now in our 46th year, the Port Summer Show is a non-profit teen theatre program that produces a top-quality musical every summer. Our mission is to engage, educate and bring the excitement of all aspects of musical theater production to Port Washington teens. Our shows are professionally directed, choreographed and conducted and we offer this diverse group of performers and crew members a safe and educational space for the summer, while enriching the community through the arts.

Not even a hazmat suit can dull your light on stage! During your years in Port theatre, you have created characters who are sweet, funny, crazy, lovable, fiery and yes, often a bit scandalous!

On your theatrical journey from the Joseph Children's Choir, through your favorite roles as Irene, Nicki, Sandra, and Georgia, you have thoughtfully and meticulously crafted your characters and have embodied them in the most extraordinary ways.

We are so proud of you and the commitment and tenacity you have shown in your work both onstage and off. You're on your way to great things on the world's stage and we're your biggest fans.

We love you infinitely,
Mom, Dad & Matthew

Do Communication Problems Waste Your Time and Money? Are Your Leaders Ready for Today's Challenges? Do Your Customers Trust That They're in Good Hands? Since 2001, Improving Communications has provided trainings to organizations such as The Consolidated Edison Company of New York, The Estée Lauder Companies, Madison Square Garden, Cablevision, Dealer Track Technologies, anecdlect, Modell's Sporting Goods, and TransRE. Combining instructional experience and expertise in educating individuals with a focus on language enables Improving Communications to help you maximize your most important resource: your people. Improving Communications training increases efficiency and protects company profits. New York based Improving Communications offers Business Writing, Public Speaking, Customer Service, Leadership, Staff Development, and Human Resources training programs, as well as providing a dynamic and engaging speaker for your events. Improving Communications provides training for companies that want to increase profits and create a more pleasant workplace environment. Written or spoken communication problems cost companies tremendous amounts of money and resources. By addressing these problems, clients develop a more positive workplace culture, improve productivity, increase retention, and resolve conflict. You will have success working with Improving Communications if: ... You are committed to creating a learning culture within your organization. The "quick fix" and "shortcuts" don't work. If you want your organization to lead and develop, to strive for the best, we will help you succeed. You are willing to implement new ideas

IMPROVING COMMUNICATIONS

struction and take action to change how they communicate in practice segments of trainings. This shows people can advance their companies and themselves. The Process Improving Communications provides "live" trainings for you/your staff. Living, breathing instructors will ensure that attendees learn and master new skills. These are best taken as time phased learning segments. By dividing the amount of information over more than one session, participants are better able to absorb and use it. Expected Results: When clients work with Improving Communications, their internal and external communications become better than they were before. They increase credibility as a result. The Values of Improving Communications: Your work is important, so training is conducted on site, keeping as much continuity as possible in your employees' workday. You have different wants and needs for your staff, so Improving Communications customizes sessions and workshops. Your staff members learn differently from each other, and these trainings are redesigned for a variety of learning styles. You want the best and so does Improving Communications; nothing less than excellence will do. You want to see positive results, and you will. The Improving Communications Approach: When you work with Improving Communications, you get what you need. First, we work with you to determine the problems you're encountering, and the results you want to see. Then, a training program is designed, discussed, amended, and approved. Improving Communications delivers and measures the results. Then, we follow up with new opportunities for growth. You will enjoy the process because you will see problems addressed and solved. Providing communications skills training for individuals and businesses means that your organization will achieve: Increased perception of credibility Higher employee productivity More consistent accuracy Saved time Greater potential for profits Correctness Better morale Greater respect among staff and leaders

The Magic of Summers

If you've spent any time at all with the Port Summer Show over the past fifteen years, we're sure you've thought, "how in the world does Jason do it?"

How does he manage every year to get a group of teenagers to work as hard as they do, for so many hours, singing and dancing and acting beyond what they thought they could accomplish, pushing them to come together as one company instead of a set of individuals, all the while giving them what most would say is the best summer of their lives?

We've seen it up close for years and still don't really know.

His obvious theatrical creativity and ever-present good humor are a big part of it. In the midst of managing multiple shows, one opening here, another closing there, and all of his travel in between, we've seen him tired, close to exhaustion. We've seen him frustrated by all the problems, big and small, that come with putting on any production. But he's always been, even in the worst of times, in charge, respectful, communicative, and above all, kind.

It's the magic of Jason. We watch in wonder at his amazing combination of caring and consideration, talent and tenacity.

So how does he do it? Jason puts it best. It's all done with lots of "Love and Lunacy".

Jason, congratulations on your fifteen years with the Port Summer Show, and our heartfelt thanks.

PWFD JUNIOR FIRE DEPARTMENT

Best wishes to the cast and crew of the Port Summer Show

The PWFD Junior Fire Department is open to teens, both boys and girls, 13-17 years old. Junior Fire Department members meet monthly to learn about firefighting and emergency medicine. The PWFD Juniors program is run by experienced PWFD members. Once Junior members turn 17 they are eligible to join one of the PWFD's four companies. The program has been providing enthusiastic members to the PWFD for over 10 years and is one of the best ways for teens to get involved in their community.

A Special Thank You To Our Departing Co-President
 Linda Nutter:

It all started with the click of the shutter and a green ogre. Linda came on the Port Summer Show scene with her lovely daughter Julia Gurlitz and her beautiful photographs of our 2013 production of Shrek The Musical. An ex-choreographer with an extensive background in theater and the arts, her innate ability to capture a moment illustrates her gift as a professional photographer. Through Urinetown and Big Fish we had her hooked and by Sweet Charity, she joined the board. She took over photographing the cast, crew and pit for the playbill and then spent hour upon hour pouring over each photograph to find every face of every kid to highlight every performer on that stage. There is no one else that can match her dedication and attention to detail. With All Shook Up, Linda took on the position of Vice President, but truly, she was our third co-president. She made it her mission to make Port Summer Show into the professional non profit organization it is today. Through months of hard work setting policy, reassessing liability insurance coverage, creating contracts and budgets, selling and designing massive amounts of ads for the playbill and sculpting every piece of correspondence to our wonderful parents and ultimately producing All Shook Up and Curtains... there is nothing this woman can't do! You are the backbone of this organization and we will miss you with all of our hearts.

Love,
 The Entire PSS Family

No one likes to see their babies struggle.
Even when they're almost adults.

Anxiety and depression affects millions of teens and twenty-somethings every year. I specialize in helping young men and women deal with our increasingly stressful world with the goal of finding a successful and fulfilling life. Text, email or even call, I can help.
