Article VIII

Purpose Language

Supplying Success is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501-C-3 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No part of the net earnings of Supplying Success shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501-C-3 of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by any organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding sections of any future federal tax code.

Supplying Success is not organized and shall not be operated for the private gain of any person. The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to its educational and charitable purposes. No part of the assets, receipts, or net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to any individual. The corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and make other payments and distributions consistent with these Articles.

Article IX

Dissolution Clause for Supplying Success

Upon termination or dissolution of the Supplying Success any assets lawfully available for distribution shall be distributed to one (1) or more qualifying organizations described in Section 501-C-3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or described in any provision of any successor statute) which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation. The organization to receive the assets of the Supplying Success hereunder shall be selected by the discretion of a majority of the managing body of the Supplying Success for the purpose of promoting and sustaining public and independent broadcast and if its members cannot so agree, then the receipt organization shall be selected pursuant to a verified petition in equity filed in a court of proper jurisdiction against the Supplying Success by one (1) or more of its managing body which verified petition shall contain such statements as reasonably indicate the applicability of this section. The court upon a finding that this section is applicable shall select the qualifying organization or organizations located within the State of Virginia.

In the event that the court shall find that this section is applicable but that there is no qualifying organization known to it which has a charitable purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to this corporation, then the court shall direct the distribution of its assets lawfully available for distribution to the Treasurer of the State of Virginia to be added to the General Fund.
