

Company Announcement

New Joiners: David Short & Navin Chauhan

Victory Hill are delighted to announce the addition of David Short and Navin Chauhan to our team.

David will hold the title of Principal and Head of Renewable Energy and will be responsible for driving renewable energy origination and investments within the Victory Hill Investment Team.

Navin will hold the title of Principal and Head of Business Development at Victory Hill Capital Group LLP and will be responsible for engagement with the firm's investors and strategic business growth initiatives.

David joins the team from his project advisory practice focused on supporting the development of large-scale renewable energy and sustainable developments across the EMEA region. David is well-known to the Victory Hill team as he was formerly the Head of Renewable Energy in the European Structured Finance Department at Mizuho Bank. David is a prominent and seasoned project financier and industry speaker. He has worked in various asset finance roles prior to joining Mizuho Bank including Mizuho affiliate company, IBJ Leasing, a leading global asset finance and leasing operation. David comes with over 30 years of investment experience in project and asset finance.

Navin joins Victory Hill from Cantor Fitzgerald where he was a member of the Investment Companies desk within the Capital Markets Division. His experience in supporting and bringing new and established managers to the Investment Trust market in the United Kingdom has been invaluable during his tenure at the firm. Prior to his time at Cantor Fitzgerald, he has spent over 10 years working on the buy-side where he had been responsible for assessing and allocating investments across a number of asset classes including private equity and infrastructure funds, while working at prominent investment firms such as Quilter Cheviot, Merrill Lynch and Russell Investments. In this context, he has been identified as a Top 100 UK Funds Analyst by Citywire, for 5 consecutive years between 2013-2017.

Both David and Navin will play an integral role in supporting the listing of Victory Hill's debut fund on the London Stock Exchange later this year and will help guide our firm's future growth and engagement within the global investor community.