

HERITAGE HALL

Museum

& ARCHIVES

FREEMAN, SD

Unlock History.

Heritage Hall Museum tells the story of the German-Russian immigrants and others who settled in southeastern Dakota Territory in the 1870s.

From old cars and buggies to household items to agricultural equipment to musical instruments, our artifacts and displays appeal to a wide range of interests.

OVER 20,000 ITEMS ON DISPLAY

- Native American Artifacts
- Natural World Display
- Farm Machinery & Tools
- Household Furnishings & Appliances
- Antique Cars & Motorcycles
- "Summer Kitchen"
- 1927 Lincoln-Page Bi-Plane
- Musical Instruments
- Immigrant Items
- Hutterite Artifacts
- Archives/Historical Library

HISTORIC BUILDINGS

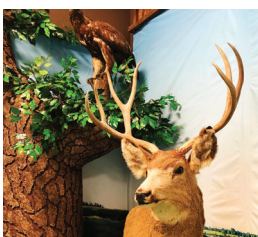

Tour a number of restored and furnished historic buildings to learn how people lived, learned, and worshiped.

- Bethel Mennonite Church
- Deckert House
- Diamond Valley Schoolhouse
- Johannesthal Reformed Church

ARTIFACTS & ARCHIVES

Artifacts trace immigrant stories, the challenges and hardships of pioneer life, and the early years of the greater Freeman area. The Archives & Historical Library contains maps, photos, and books that document the area's history.

MUSEUM HOURS

MAY - SEPTEMBER

Monday - Saturday: 10AM - 4PM
and by appointment

OCTOBER - APRIL

Monday - Friday: 12 - 4PM
All Weekends & Holidays: CLOSED

CONTACT INFO

HERITAGE HALL MUSEUM & ARCHIVES

880 S Cedar St • PO Box 693 • Freeman, SD 57029 • 605-925-7545
info@heritagehallmuseum.com • heritagehallmuseum.com

Heritage Hall Museum & Archives is centrally located in southeastern South Dakota.

We invite you to visit us, whether as a destination or as part of your exploration of our state.

