Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service Form 8009-A (Rev. 9-2015)

We Need More Information To Process Your Amended Return

We are returning your amended income tax return because we need the information asked for in the boxes checked on both sides of this form to finish processing your return. Please send your return back to us promptly with all of the items we asked for.

Generally, you must file an amended return within 3 years from the date you file the original return, or 2 years from the date you paid the tax on the original return, whichever date is later.

In case we need further information, please give your telephone number and the best hours to contact you.

IN RE:

Form 8009-A

Dear IRS Rep:

Thank you for your correspondence sent on Nov 14, 2016. In that correspondence you have returned to me the "amended tax return" for the year 2013, dated August 2, 2016, and claim that you can't process it because you have no record of receiving an original 1040 form even when the IRS has been trying to un-lawfully assess penalties of almost $25,000 for "ALLEGED" "FRIVOLOUS TAX RETURNS" for that year alone.

Enclosed, please find the requested "NEW ORIGINAL 1040 FORM FOR THE YEAR 2013". This new original 1040 form is sent to you in the fashion that you have requested it; to reflect the information contained in the amended return mentioned above. Please refer to your form 8009-A copy enclosed.

Please also note that by honoring your request I am not waiving any right or protection that I am or may be entitle to under any law; state, statutory, common, or any administrative proceeding, in fact, the submission of the new form is just yet another sample of my good faith effort to resolve this matter in an expeditious, peaceful and intelligent manner.

Also, be advised that the submission of this tax return is not to be construed as and IT IS NOT an admission of any of the following statuses: "tax payer" "U.S. citizen" "person" as defined in either of sections 5690, 7343, 7701(a) or any other definition of person as defined by Title 26 U.S.C.; "U.S. person", "employee", "U.S. individual", "resident alien", "alien" or any of the like as defined by Title 26, neither is the submission of this tax return an admission as to ever having received any "wages; salaries, income, gross income, remuneration, benefits, tips" or any of the like, as those terms are defined by Title 26.

Furthermore; I am none of the terms above, either by fact, definition nor by appointment. And nobody in your agency is authorize to attach any of those labels on me without first providing evidence of such allegations. Since I expressly and specifically deny any such statuses under penalty of perjury, and given that a negative can't be proved, the burden is then on the "commissioner" to prove that I am or fit as a matter of facts; the description or definition of any of the above statuses.

As a side note; please take notice of the fact that your "devised" Paperwork Reduction Act Notice at the end of your form 8009-A; fails to comply with the act itself as enacted by Congress, because it fails to state by what authority am I required to give whatever information you say I am required to give you, plus several other defects which at this time, I don't feel like explaining to you since you have shown so much "unbelievable" disregard for the laws.

This letter and all it's attachments must be filed as a permanent part of my IRS/TDA/AIMS/IMF 23C record. If such record(s) have/has been deleted or substituted, this demand still applies.

IN RE:

Your form 8009-A requesting "a new original 2013 tax return".

RE: Claim for refund.

Below are the facts and grounds to apprise the "Commissioner" of the exact basis for my claim.

Background Facts. I am domiciled on Jackson township within the County of Ocean, New Jersey, one of the 50 states [NOT 1 OF THE SEVERAL STATES as defined by the code and other relevant and applicable laws] under the "Exclusive legislative Jurisdiction" of the state of New Jersey. For federal income tax purposes only I am "DESCRIBED" as Citizen of the United States (U.S. person) and a U.S. payee.

Statement of income.

I firmly believe that at least 3 different third parties sent the Secretary some "erroneous information returns" about me for the following reasons:

- ✓ As a payee and U.S. person, my receipts were unlawfully exposed to taxation.
- ✓ My receipts were mischaracterized as "taxable income". The Supreme Court rejected the notion that "income is everything that comes in" S. Pacific v Lowe, 247 U.S. 330,335.(1918)
- ✓ Pursuant to Internal Revenue Bulletin 1997-44 and Treasury Decision 8734, and relevant laws, the 3rd parties or "payers" weren't supposed to report the payments to me as "wages, profits or income" WHICH THEY WERE NOT.
- ✓ Their information returns were improperly filed with the Secretary.
- ✓ The characterization of the amounts paid to me as being "taxable income" and reported as such was wrong and is "bad payer's data"

Thus, I received insufficient "income" as that term is defined by the code as to trigger a requirement to file a "return of tax" showing as income, wages, or profits that which is Not, for the following reasons:

- ✓ Based on my personal knowledge of the facts and events as they occurred, I am unable to identify any "activity or privilege" in which I was engaged that Congress taxes for "revenue purposes";
- ✓ in my research for determining my income tax "liability" (IRC, Subtitle A), only IRC sec 1461 references "a person made liable for any tax imposed" (26 U.S.C. sec 1461-liability for tax withheld) every person required to deduct and withhold any tax under this chapter; chapter-3 withholding of tax on nonresident aliens and Foreign Corporations. is hereby made liable for such tax and is hereby indemnified against the claims and demands of any person for the amount of any payments made in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Which clearly does not, and cannot apply to me.
- ✓ I have not been able to find any other statute that could clearly make me "a person liable for any tax imposed by Title 26" this, despite a very serious and diligent search of such 26 U.S.C. and its "regulations", in addition to making a research in sources like Federal taxation of individuals in a nutshell, Cracking the code, both physical and digital editions of 26 U.S.C.; Title 26 C.F.R., and even by way of FOIA requests.
- ✓ After a deep search into Title 26 U.S.C. for sections that could possibly make me liable for or subject to any tax, the following findings and conclusions were arrived at: and please, correct me if you have evidence that overturns my understanding of the law as written and I promise to amend any wrong information.
- a) Title 26 U.S.C. is comprised of about 9834 sections which are scattered throughout 11 Subtitles, A to K, and each of those subtitles represents and governs/controls or imposes a different type of taxes as shown next;

Subtitle B- ESTATE AND GIFT TAXES sections 2000 to 2801 Subtitle C- EMPLOYMENT TAXES sections 3101 to 3512 Subtitle D- MISCELLANEOUS EXCISE TAXES sections 4001 to 5000 C Subtitle E- ALCOHOL, TOBACCO, AND CERTAIN OTHER EXCISE TAXES 5001 to Subtitle F- PROCEDURE AND ADMINISTRATION sections 6001 to 7874 Subtitle G- THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON TAXATION sections 8001 to 8023 Subtitle H- FINANCING OF PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION CAMPAIGNS 9001 to 9042 Subtitle I-TRUST FUND CODE sections 9500 to 9602 Subtitle J- COAL INDUSTY HEALTH BENEFITS sections 9701 to 9722 Subtitle K- GROUP HEALTH PLAN REQUIREMENTS sections 9801 to 9834

b) My understanding of the law is, that out of the 11 subtitles, only the subtitles A and C could possibly have some pick on casting any or some liability given the names of the subtitles; namely A-income taxes, and C-employment taxes. Up to this point, the other 9 subtitles have become irrelevant to any liability that I may have because their names are self-explanatory and need not to be addressed any longer and therefore, out of the 9834 sections of the code we have already eliminated 7859 irrelevant sections-leaving us with only 1975 sections to pick or choose from, now the other problem that exist with that number is that subtitle C-EMPLOYMENT TAXES don't have anything to do with my relationship with my private employer, but it deals with taxes imposed on the "employer/s" as that term is defined by the code for the benefit of employing people or legal entities, NOT ON ME as an employee in the private sector, in other words; if I am not an "employer" as that term is defined by the code, I can't be liable for such taxes, and nobody, neither the Commissioner, the Secretary, the entire IRS, nor even a Judge has the authority of attaching such label on me; either by definition or by appointment, period.

- c) So, by eliminating subtitle C- employment-taxes from the list, we got rid of another 411 sections, bringing the chances of liability down to 1564, and of those sections I could only identify 3 sections that could cast any possibility of liability. These are the sections and how they read:
 - ✓ Section 1 TAX IMPOSED: There is hereby imposed on the "taxable income" of......[emphasis mine] So, as shown here, this section does not qualify as authority because section 1 imposes a tax not on me, but on the "TAXABLE INCOME" and of course this will apply regardless of me being or not a "U.S. person; U.S. citizen, Resident alien or even an American citizen as long as having taxable income is all that it matters.
 - ✓ Section 11 Tax imposed: (A) CORPORATIONS IN GENERAL. A tax is hereby imposed for each taxable year on the "taxable income" of every corporation.....[emphasis mine] Here, once again a tax is imposed on taxable income of a corporation, so it has nothing to do with me being employed by a "private employer" and by now we are left with only one more and last possibility.
 - ✓ Section 1461 LIABILITY FOR WITHHELD TAX: Every person required to deduct and withhold any tax under this chapter [CHAPTER-3 WITHHOLDING OF TAX ON NONRESIDENT ALIENS AND FOREIGN CORPORATIONS] is hereby made liable for such taxes.......[emphasis mine] and WOW, we have just ran out of choices.

And for the benefit of the doubt one could easily mistakenly "believe" that some of the 1873 sections in subtitle-F PROCEDURE AND ADMINISTRATION could fulfill the authority requirement as to the imposition of liability, however; !!nothing could be farther from the truth!! Although subtitle F contains sections as 6001, 6011, 6012, and other criminal sections or criminal statutes like from 7201 to 7345, all those sections imposing an obligation to file any return of tax at all are only enforcing the provisions of the taxes so imposed by all other subtitles or said otherwise; subtitle F is not a type of tax at all, but as implied by the name, it dictates the procedures and administration of all the taxes imposed by all other subtitles within the "TITLE" Title 26 U.S.C. Just remember, whenever a tax return or obligation is imposed it always begins with a very crystal clear "any person required by this title"or something to that effect, for example: "We see no distinction between the phrases "liable for such tax" and "subject to a tax"." Houston Street Corp. v. C.I.R.; 84 F 2d 821, at 822 (5th Cir. 1936) And, other sections of the code, IRC, for example, sections 1461, 5005, and 5703, among others, plainly make certain persons liable for the tax imposed

Please understand; that I have never taken any position (as I am not doing now) as claimed by some of the agents of the IRS, that the laws don't apply to me, "of course they do", but if and when they impose directly on me any duty or obligation, "it must be unequivocally" and therefore I laugh every-time the IRS tries to scare me with threats of penalties for "FRIVOLOUS RETURNS" [now amounting to almost $50,000] which has no applicability to me under the law; since in order for me to be "FRIVOLOUS" when filing any return, I must first be made liable by statute and regulation together (as only both, statute and published regulation have the force and effect on me) and not by either of them for such return, so the section 6651 which the IRS uses as justification for the fines or "additions to the tax/fine" fails to show any liability of my part to file any tax return imposed by any of the other 10 subtitles or their chapters in Title 26.

Remember this: "Tax liability is a condition precedent to the demand" as per Bothke v. Terry, 713 F. 2d 1405, 1414 (1983) [emphasis added] from which the following sections were copied and pasted:

After reviewing the record and listening to Bothke's oral argument, we are satisfied that this lawsuit and his misguided, unorthodox 1977 tax return were not frivolous attempts solely to challenge or burden the tax system or harass its agents. Rather, his predominant theme has been that this country's laws are just and that government agents must conform to them, a matter of importance to him as an immigrant who has lived under totalitarian regimes in Eastern Bothke emphasized below that he was suing agent Terry individually for allegedly acting in violation of legal duties and was not suing the United States. At a hearing the magistrate rejected Terry's sovereign immunity defense, and correctly so. Defendant's argument, that the suit was really against the government because 26 U.S.C. § 7423 authorizes reimbursement of IRS agents for all damages recovered from them for acts done in performance of official duties, was specious. Cf. also United States v. Nunnally Investment Co., 316 U.S. 258, 260, 62 S.Ct. 1064, 1065, 86 L.Ed. 1455 (1942).

- IRS agents are "relatively low-level executive officers" with a correspondingly "narro[w] range of official discretion." Mark v. Groff, 521 F.2d at 1380-81. Cf. G.M. Leasing, 560 F.2d at 1014 (levying is "ministerial" rather than "discretionary" activity).
- We recognize the government's interest in collecting taxes. Congress's taxing power is granted by the Constitution, U.S. Const. Art. I § 8, cl. 1; Amend. XVI. The importance of tax collection is reflected in statutes which, for example, prohibit its injunction. See 26 U.S.C. § 7421(a).
- But the law reflects also a Congressional determination that the taxpayer should be afforded certain procedural rights, which the IRS is bound to respect, See, e.g., Laing v. United States, 423 U.S. 161, 96 S.Ct. 473, 46 L.Ed.2d 416 (1976). In balancing these interests, Congress has determined that violations of the procedural rights at issue here are exceptions to the Anti-Injunction Act. See 26 U.S.C. § 6213(a), (b)(2), 7421(a).
- Private ownership of property and its enjoyment secure from arbitrary governmental interference are cherished, fundamental concepts, see U.S. Const. Amends. III, IV, V, X, XIV, and are two of the features distinguishing this society from those with oppressive governments.
- Unjustified governmental invasion of property rights by seizure can occasion physical hardship, see Commissioner v. Shapiro, 424 U.S. 614, 629-30 n. 11, 96 S.Ct. 1062, 1071-72 n. 11, 47 L.Ed.2d 278 (1976), but the affront to the citizen's notions of the place of government in our society, when personally confronting the misuse of its awesome power, may engender a turmoil that is more profound than the physical effects of the deprivation. Cf. Bivens, 403 U.S. at 391-92, 394-96, 91 S.Ct. at 2002-03, 2003-05.

- ✓ The Service, with its broad authority including that of levying property, has power that is considerable, and in some ways unique, to disrupt taxpayers' lives. The needs of the public fisc are vital, but their mere invocation cannot override all rights of the public for whom it exists, without reference to the propriety of that invocation.
- ✓ With the IRS's broad power must come a concomitant responsibility to exercise it within the confines of the law. The Court has emphasized that no official is above the law, and that broad powers present broad opportunities for abuse. Butz, 438 U.S. at 505-06. 98 S.Ct. at 2910-11. Cf. Mark v. Groff, 521 F.2d at 1380 n. 4.
- We conclude that agents in Terry's position do not meet the Supreme Court's test for creating new categories of absolutely immune executive officials.

Qualified Immunity

- ✓ The decision below reflects a determination that Terry acted with subjective good faith. However, when it was rendered, officials asserting the qualified immunity defense had to demonstrate that they met an objective standard of good faith as well. See, e.g., Wood v. Strickland, 420 U.S. 308, 321, 95 S.Ct. 992, 1000, 43 L.Ed.2d 214 (1975). Ignorance or disregard of settled, undisputable law negates this defense even if subjective good faith exists. Id.
- ✓ The Supreme Court has since revised the summary judgment test for qualified immunity, making objective good faith the only requirement. The district court is to place its "[r]eliance on the objective reasonableness of an official's conduct." Harlow, 102 S.Ct. at 2739. "[G]overnment officials performing discretionary functions generally are shielded from liability for civil damages insofar as their conduct does not violate clearly established statutory or constitutional rights of which a reasonable person would have known." Id. at 2738 (emphasis supplied).
- ✓ Bothke argues that Terry has not met this standard, because (1) the IRS allegedly did not follow statutory procedures, and (2) he warned Terry twice that she was proceeding illegally. Because of the lower court's disposition on the immunity issue, it did not reach the question whether the IRS proceeded correctly.
- For a levy to be statutorily authorized in the circumstances here, two conditions must be fulfilled. First, a 10-day notice of intent to levy must have issued. See 26 U.S.C. § 6331(a). Terry ascertained that this had been done. Second, the taxpayer must be liable for the tax. Id. Tax liability is a condition precedent to the demand. Merely demanding payment, even repeatedly, does not cause liability.
- For the condition precedent of liability to be met, there must be a lawful assessment, either a voluntary one by the taxpayer or one procedurally proper by the IRS. Because this country's income tax system is based on voluntary self-assessment, rather than distraint, Flora v. United States, 362 U.S. 145, 176, 80 S.Ct. 630, 646-47, 4 L.Ed.2d 623 (1960), the Service may assess the tax only in certain circumstances and in conformity with proper procedures.
- Bothke believes that the IRS had to follow the deficiency proceedings of 26 U.S.C. § 6212, 6213(a), under which he was entitled to a preassessment notice of deficiency which gave him 90 days to petition the Tax Court. Terry argues that the IRS was proceeding properly under an exception to the statutory requirement, whereby no deficiency notice is necessary if the amount assessed is the result of a mathematical or clerical error on the face of the return. Id. § 6213(b)(1), (g)(2).
- ✓ Even under this exception, the regular deficiency-proceeding safeguards are mandatorily triggered if the taxpayer requests an abatement within 60 days. Id. § 6213(b)(2). Bothke responded to the IRS's Correction to Arithmetic well within that time.
- ✓ The IRS failed to construe his protest as a request for abatement because he did not cite this statute. But the notice to Bothke did not suggest that the IRS expected a statutory reference before it would conclude that the taxpayer's procedural rights under the statute had been triggered. Rather, it indicated that Bothke could challenge the correction merely by "let[ting] us know if you believe that the balance due is incorrect."
- More importantly, the statute does not require that the taxpayer put a legal classification on his protest. The Service, however, with its expertise, is obliged to know its own governing statutes and to apply them realistically. Bothke's strongly worded protest should reasonably have been construed as a request for abatement. It seems the IRS proceeded illegally even under its interpretation of the proper procedure to use for his tax return.

- ✓ Terry has in the alternative suggested briefly that the procedure used was proper because no determination of a prior notice of deficiency is required when the assessment is based on the return as filed. The authority offered is Collins v. United States, 45 A.F.T.R.2d 616 (E.D.Mo. Dec. 3, 1979). In that case, the taxpayers had self-assessed the taxes but failed to pay them. Under the facts here, this argument is frivolous. As the magistrate noted, when Terry's counsel suggested this below, "if you read [Bothke's Form 1040] literally it indicates that the $1,100 should come back to him. It doesn't indicate that he owes anything."
- ✓ If Terry had this protest or was aware of its substance, it is questionable whether she can meet the objective good faith standard. This information is not in the record on appeal.
- This is not to be read to imply that where the file passed to the field officer masks, either carelessly or systematically, facts pertinent to the legality of the levy, immunity will automatically result. If the field officer has reasonable notice of possible irregularities that would make a levy illegal, whether the notice comes by examination of the file or otherwise, the matter must be resolved, if the exercise of discretion to levy is to have a factual basis of adequate scope. This is especially true in a routine case where no jeopardy assessment is involved and the circumstances are not exigent. This follows from an application of good faith immunity standards to the fact that field officer job duties include investigating an account before determining that a levy is warranted.

We recognize that several agents may deal with a case before it reaches the field officer and that any procedural error in these earlier stages are committed by officials other than the one ultimately assigned the account for investigation and levy.

Bothke's March 15 protest to the Correction to Arithmetic exemplifies the sort of thing which, if known to the field officer, would provide reasonable notice of preexisting procedural improprieties. It is the item which, after a review of the record in this case, stands out as raising a genuine issue of Terry's good faith under the objective standard.

- ✓ The district court's findings of her subjective good faith survives the clearly erroneous test.
- ✓ Terry did have the "Taxpayer Delinquent Account," but we cannot decipher the abbreviations and transaction codes for the items in the printout. The date of one item corresponds approximately with the date the IRS received Bothke's March 15protest.
 Our consideration of this matter was hampered in other ways. The copy of Terry's handwritten "TDA History Record" in the record on appeal is so poorly reproduced as to be partially illegible. We are unable to decipher the numerical codes Terry used. There appears to be an unexplained hiatus on lines 9 and 13.
- ✓ We remand for a determination whether Terry met the objective good faith standard. The matter of Bothke's protest to the Correction to Arithmetic and Terry's knowledge of it will be considered.
- ✓ Bothke is clearly not without fault in the creation of this situation in view of the manner in which he prepared his 1977 tax return. The Service, however, has efficient methods for dealing with such returns. Our decision will not hamper it from pursuing those proper methods in similar situations. Cf. Fullerton Market Cold Storage Co. v. Cullerton, 582 F.2d 1071 at 1078 (7th Cir. 1978).

And so, to wrap up and jump to the essence of my tax return filing, I will leave you with the following passages as taken from the book "Federal income Taxation of Individuals" Section 17, page 37; by John K McNulty and Daniel J. Lathrope and published by THOMSON WEST:

Section 17, Significance of the Definition of income. If a purported item of income is not gross income under Sec 61(a), It cannot give rise to taxable income or tax liability under the Federal Income Tax. Congress could however, later change the definition of "Gross income" to include such item. However, If an item is not "income" within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment, It cannot be taxed under the income tax no matter what Congress may try to do. So the holding in Edwardsv. Cuba Railroad Co(S.Ct. 1925) seemingly put such items beyond the reach of Congress to tax, unless Congress were to comply with both Article 1, Sec 9, Clause 4 of the U.S. Constitution by taxing in proportion to population and Article 1, Section 2, Clause 3 by apportioning direct taxes among the several states according to their respective numbers.

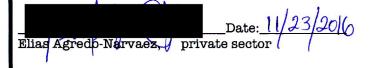

Accordingly, the question "What is income"? for the Sixteenth Amendment purposes differs from the question "What is gross income?" for purposes of the I.R.C. sec 61(a). However, in Glenshaw Glass Co. there is some language to that effect that in sec 61(a) Congress attempted to exercise its powers to tax income to the limits imposed by the Constitution.

CERTIFIED MAIL# 7016 2070 0000 2480 6940

(Remember the broad language of sec 61(a).) If so, then gross income (except as otherwise provided) in sec 61(a) is identical to "income" in the Sixteenth Amendment. Anything that is "income" within the Sixteenth Amendment, Congress intends to tax under Sec 61(a) I.R.C. except as congress has otherwise specifically provided.

Thus, I claim a refund of at least $3635.02 which was an overpayment to the United States of amounts erroneously exposed to taxation, plus any additional applicable interests given the fact that my refund has been erroneously, un-necessary, and maliciously delayed for about 2 years since first filed.

Jurat Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. sec 1746. I declare under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the united states of America, that I have read the foregoing statement and document, and to the best of my knowledge, the statements therein are true, correct, and complete.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form 4852, at www.irs.gov/form4852. Information about any future developments affecting Form 4852 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Purpose of form. Form 4852 serves as a substitute for Forms W-2, W-2c, and 1099-R and is completed by you or your representatives when (a) your employer or payer does not issue you a Form W-2 or Form 1099-R or (b) an employer or payer has issued an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R. Attach this form to the back of your income tax return, before any supporting forms or schedules.

You should always attempt to get Form W-2, Form W-2c, or Form 1099-R from your employer or payer before contacting the IRS or filing Form 4852. If you do not receive the missing or corrected form from your employer or payer by February 14, you may call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 for assistance. You must provide your name, address (including ZIP code), phone number, social security number, and dates of employment, and your employer's or payer's name, address (including ZIP code), and phone number. The IRS will contact your employer or payer and request the missing form. The IRS also will send you a Form 4852. If you do not receive the missing form in sufficient time to file your income tax return timely, you may use the Form 4852 that the IRS sent you.

If you received an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R, you should always attempt to have your employer or payer issue a corrected form before filing Form 4852.

Note. Retain a copy of Form 4852 for your records. To help protect your social security benefits, keep a copy of Form 4852 until you begin receiving social security benefits, just in case there is a question about your work record and/or earnings in a particular year. After September 30 following the date shown on line 4, you may use a my Social Security online account to verify wages reported by your employers. Please visit www.ssa.gov/myaccount. Or, you may contact your local SSA office to verify wages reported by your employer.

Will I need to amend my return? If you receive a Form W-2, Form W-2c, or Form 1099-R after your return is filed with Form 4852, and the information differs from the information reported on your return,

NOTICE

This statement includes a (correcting) representation of a form W-2. The representation it is NOT INTENDED to represent a corrected W-2 form filed by the party identified in it as the "PAYER" or "employer". The correcting W-2 form is submitted to REBUT a document known to have been submitted by the party identified in it as the "PAYER or "EMPLOYER" which erroneously alleged a payment or payments made to the party identified in it as the "recipient or employee" of gains, profit or income made in the course of a "trade or business". Neither the PAYER nor the RECIPIENT engaged in any transactions with each other that were made in the course of a "trade or business" as those terms are defined by the code.

This correcting form/ representation ends any such presumption. Note however that the amounts deducted are correct and needed no correction.

STATEMENT

No payments were received by the party identified in the form as the "RECIPIENT" or the "EMPLOYEE" from the party identified in it as the "PAYER" or the "EMPLOYER" which were connected with the performance of the functions of a "PUBLIC OFFICE" or otherwise constituted "Gains, Profit, or income within the meaning of relevant law. Deductions amounts are however correct.

Under penalty of perjury, I declare that these statements are true and complete.
