Alexis Calfee

Alexis "Lexi" Calfee was the definition of the All-American girl: homecoming queen, volleyball captain, president of Student Council and National Honor Society, track star, and aspiring elementary education teacher. Beautiful inside and out - success never went to her head - she selflessly put the needs of others first. On Sept. 9, 2011 Lexi and her Boyfriend Chris Oberg were killed by a drunk driver.

Join us for the 11th Annual Alexis Calfee Blood Drive to honor her love of helping others. Please keep her memory alive and donate the gift of life.

Join us to donate and choose a packable backpack or limited-edition T-shirt as thanks.
