As I mentioned in the 1st quarter newsletter, we attended three different graduations while I was in India during the first part of the year. First one was at the main ICBC campus in Cochin, second one in the city of Chandigarh. Third graduation I attended was in Andhra Pradesh. This was the 17th graduation at the Gurukulam Training Center. 27 students graduated from 3 different training centers. Dr. K.M. Wilson (1987 alumni of ICBC) is overseeing the three training centers. So far there have been 110 graduates and they are all in some type of ministry.

2019 2nd Quarter Newsletter

Dr. Wilson, wife Alice, Fin Mgr. Sheela Joseph, Samson (son of K.M. & Alice) Pastor James Mathew (brother of K.M. and leader of the Bihar ministry)

On the evening of the graduation, we had an ordination service. Eleven pastors were ordained with their wives standing behind them in support. After each one was prayed for by laying of the hands, communion was served to them. The next afternoon was the alumni meeting and 30 pastors attended the meeting. Each one provided an update of their ministry and needs. Please pray for their families and ministry.

Current news: I spoke with dad this morning. His health is very good. Main campus is buzzing again, new semester began on June 10. Currently we have 42 students enrolled and additional 15 students will be joining next week. Majority of the students are from Northern part of India and there are 4 students from Kerala. This semester there are a good number of female students as well. Please pray that God will provide all their needs and they will have a successful year.
