Training Center Graduation in Vizag, Andhra Pradesh on May 4th, 2018. ICBC has six Missionary Training Centers throughout India.

Pastor K.M. Wilson, wife Alice & son Samson. Wilson graduated from ICBC in 1988. They have been working in AP for the past 16 years.

40 students graduated this year. Most of them came from Hindu background. They will be mentored by Pastor Wilson and Suyra (another MTC graduate). Some older graduates already have a their own ministry and wanted formal Biblical education and training.

Training Centers offer a 9 month curriculum and following are some of the courses taught: Bible Survey, Discipleship, Evangelism, Prayer, Church Ministry, Church Planting, Life and Work of Missionaries and other courses.

Ordination Service later on in the evening after graduation. 16 ministers were ordained. They wanted to be acknowledged as an official minister. Not all of graduates are ordained, but all of the ordained ministers are graduates from the missionary training center.

Wives stand behind their husbands when husbands are being anointed with oil. This is to represent that they are a pillar of support for each other. As the husbands are being anointed and prayed for individually the wives kneeled behind with tears streaming down their face in reverence of what they are witnessing.
