

~3RD OF JULY CELEBRATION~

Many years ago, we started a tradition of celebrating Independence Day with fireworks on the 4th of July. However, in the late 80s or early 90s, we moved the celebration to the 3rd of July instead. To this day, the tradition is still going strong and draws thousands of people to our quaint little town. We are grateful for the opportunity to continue this tradition.

This free event, perfect for families, features artisan vendors, live music, a kid's area, food, a parade, and a fantastic fireworks display.
