Even In Darkness

Remain Unleavened

When we partake in unleavened bread (without leaven) His Living Water (His Word) pulls us to His righteousness He has revealed.

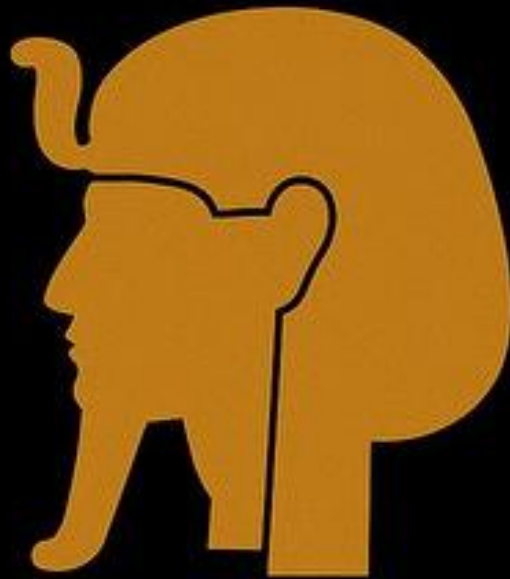

In the beginning the earth was in chaos. Full of darkness, death, ignorance and misery all over. YAHUAH then by His favor showed compassion to us and gave His Light. Just as His Light keeps us from darkness, being unleavened keeps us from being leavened which leads to darkness.

Just like at that time, darkness didn't go away but it was an option for us to not be of the darkness. Just as leaven is still around as we choose to remain unleavened.

EGYPT MENTALITY GOTTA GO

We were slaves in Egypt. The Feast of Unleavened Bread reminds us we left all that behind.

Slavery to sin, systems,
and even food habits.

Eating unleavened bread is like saying.
"I'm not living off what Pharaoh fed me.
I'm trusting YAH now."

BACK TO THE SCRIPT (TORAH TALK)

In Exodus 12, YAH told our ancestors to dip up outta Egypt fast. No time to let bread rise. That's where matzah comes in—flatbread, no yeast, just the basics. But symbolically, it's bigger than that.

Leaven (chametz) =
ego, sin, pride.
Stuff that puffs
you up and slows you down.

WHEN YAHUSHA (THE MESSIAH) CAME, HE DIDN'T JUST TALK THE TALK—HE LIVED WITHOUT LEAVEN, FOR REAL. NO SIN, NO CORRUPTION,
WHEN HE GAVE HIS LIFE, IT LINED UP PERFECTLY WITH THIS FEAST. HIS BODY WAS LIKE THAT MATZAH—PURE, BROKEN, SHARED.
HE SHOWED US WHAT UNLEAVENED REALLY MEANS.

GO WITH THE LAMB

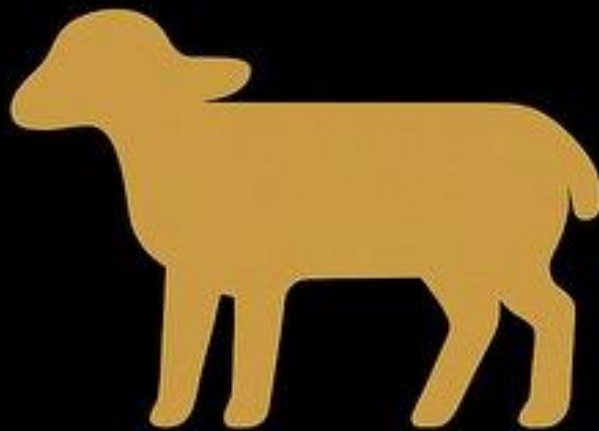

As the Passover lamb, cannot go with leavened bread, if we want to go with YAHUSHA in His Kingdom, The Lamb of YAHUAH, we must become unleavened.

Unleavened bread also represents the bread of affliction. Giving us a reminder of the affliction we went through in Egypt. The Strength Of YAHUAH's Hand moved for us in the time of our affliction and we had to leave in haste but it's not only that. This bread of affliction also teaches us how to afflict and humble our souls to The Word of YAHUAH. Which truly humbles us and allows us not to puff up against our Master YAHUSHA. Teaching us how to go with The Lamb, YAHUSHA.

WHY? BECAUSE YAHUSHA IS OUR PASSOVER!

HE ALREADY TOOK THAT HIT FOR US.
HE BECAME THE LAMB, THE COVERING, THE SACRIFICE THAT DEATH HAD TO PASS OVR.
SO IF HE GAVE UP HIS BODY
SINLESS AND UNLEAVENED
THEN WHY WOULD WE STILL BE WALKIN' AROUND FULL OF FLUFF.

UNLEAVENED YAHUSHA I AM THE LIVING BREAD

YAHUSHA calls himself the "bread of life", aligning with the spiritual value of unleavened bread. Just as unleavened bread represents purity and freedom from sin, Yahusha embodies a life without sin, offering spiritual sustenance and everlasting life to his followers

7 UNLEAVENED COMPLETELY PURE

Listen...

You gotta clean out that old junk!
That stale mindset, that hidden sin,
all that ego that's been puffin' you up.

YAH said,
"Be
unleavened."

That means be real,
be pure, be humble.

COMMUNITY OVER EVERYTHING

This feast wasn't just for one person—it was for the whole nation. Families did this together. They passed it down
They talked about it with their kids—
That's what being set apart is all about—
living different as a people,
not just individuals.
