WORDS TO

I NEVER KNEW YOU

THE FORSAKEN

To think of and to do iniquity will cause us to not be known by YAHUAH or YAHUSHA. Those thoughts and actions also reveal that we don't know YAHUAH or YAHUSHA. Iniquity is a form of sin and sin is transgression of The Law.

When we are stubborn towards His instructions, no matter the amount of good we believe we are doing, it is as iniquity. Transgressing His Commands is iniquity and we cannot be justified transgressing His commands. He will justify those who love Him and keep His Commandments and forsake those who didn't in that day.

HIS WAY TO THE BLIND

YAHUAH will not leave us blind but will reveal His Light. Through the revealing of His Light, an act of compassion, we are given a chance to know Him. If we truly seek to know Him in His righteousness, He will then know us.

But if we are full of pride, which is wickedness, then we will not seek YAHUAH nor consider Him in our thoughts. Not considering YAHUAH's Law will leave us in darkness causing us to be hopeless with no faith.

HIS LIGHT TO THE BLIND

YAHUAH has not forsaken us from His Faith but we have forsaken Him and His Faith. Let us at this day seek YAHUAH's Face and His Strength.

SIN IS THE SEPARATION

Sin is what separates us from YAHUAH, but even while being separated by our iniquities He has not forsaken us. He walks contrary to us for a moment but He is faithful and says that He will never forsake us.

If we turn back to Him and His Law spoken from His Mouth with all our heart, might and soul, He will be pleased with us. When He is pleased with us He hears our prayers and supplications. When He is pleased with us He looks to be The Hand that saves us. We just have to do what is pleasing to our Heavenly Father.

YAHUAH's Mercy

• His Name & His Promise •

YAHUAH is a merciful Mighty One and there is no others like Him. He allows us to still seek His Face even though we have lived outside of His Perfect Will. YAHUAH has every right to forsake us, but for His Great Name's Sake, he chooses not to forsake us to remain faithful to the promise given to our forefathers. He leaves His mercy available to those who love Him and He never forsakes them.

The Promise that keeps us from being forsaken is the promise to our forefathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Living according to the faith of our fathers is how we will be known of YAHUSHA and not forsaken. Due to Abraham's faith, he kept and guarded the way of YAHUAH. He is an example of YAHUAH knowing those who keep His Law and keeping His Covenant with them.

THE WAVE OFFERING: You Were Never Left Behind

Leviticus 23:10-11 “Bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest.

He shall wave
the sheaf
to declare:

“This belongs to You.”

That’s what Yahusha became.

Not just crucified
– but waved before
the Father as the firstfruit of what was to come.

The wave offering wasn’t a sacrifice—
it was a signal.

Brought before Yahuah
to declare:
“This belongs to You.”

If He was waved—
—and we are in Him—
we are part of the same offering.

You weren’t left in the field.
You were marked.

You are still covered.

FINAL WORD: NEVER FORSAKEN

If you've felt distant, forgotten, or buried by the fire—you're not alone. Yahuah didn't leave you there.
He's been preserving you through it.

Yahusha didn't cry out to question the Father—He cried out to fulfill the plan.

The pain wasn't permanent.
The fire wasn't final.

The resurrection proves it:

YOU ARE NEVER FORSAKEN.

But now—it's your move.

CALL TO REPENTANCE

CALL TO REPENTANCE

If you've drifted—come back.

If your faith's been tested—speak truth again.

If you've been silent—repent and return.

Yahuah is still waving His wheat. The question is: will you be part of the offering?
