having or characterized by many transient sexual relationships:

demonstrating or implying an indiscriminating or unselective approach; indiscriminate or casual:

When most hear the word promiscuous, they assume it's only referring to sensual "bedroom" pleasures. Which it does mean that, but that's not the only way that word is used.

The word promiscuous also implies that one has an unselective or indiscriminate approach.

This is why the promises in The Law is not for the indiscriminate or the unselective. Reason is, because The Law teaches us how to be selective in our everyday affairs to achieve life.

Deuteronomy 30:19 (KJV) I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, [that] I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

Being indiscriminate seems convenient to some now because everything is available for man to please his flesh.

With an indiscriminate approach, anyone can do anything they want or treat anyone the way they want to with no care for correction of their action. If correction can't be given for actions going against The Will of YAHUAH, then one cannot receive any promises of the blessings from the Will of YAHUAH because their actions deny them.

2 Esdras 7: 24

But his law have they despised, and denied his covenants; in his statutes have they not been faithful, and have not performed his works.

We have often heard the saying “man makes plans and God laughs”.

This is true. The majority of the world doesn't align their plan with YAHUAH's which is why we see so much chaos. Then they blame The Most High for their misfortune which is why the Power laughs at that result of destruction.

Proverbs 1:33 (KJV) But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

The law and order have be forsaken and The One who fulfilled it (YAHUSHA) is looked down on. Now the majority of people aren't seeking correction to be lead to safety. Being in safety gives you a chance to save your soul and help someone else do the same. This is how we can bear each other's burdens together and overcome this dark world that blindly chooses everything but good to follow.

Proverbs 30:12 (KJV) [There is] a generation [that are] pure in their own eyes, and [yet] is not washed from their filthiness.

When a Father makes a promise to his children it is his duty to fulfill it and his children hold his word closely expecting that fulfillment. How much greater is The Promise of YAHUAH to his children of everlasting life and inheriting the earth?! YAHUAH isn't a man that He should lie, so without a doubt these two will come to pass for those who keep His covenant and don't play the field but rather keep it loyal knowing The Father will Deliver!

Everyone feels they're right in their own eyes, not taking in consideration before their time. There's nothing new under the sun, so it's always been a generation that didn't want to listen to wise counsel. Today's popular ways encourage promiscuous actions which are against The Law Of YAH, but what can wash away this dark style of living? Only The One who told us to keep our eye single
