Does YAHUAH Punish Us For
Not Following
The Governments
Where We Reside?

Although it is mentioned nowhere to Israel to obey the “laws of the land” of their captivity, some will argue that we were encouraged to do so. But as 2 Peter states, those who are unlearned and unstable pervert to their own destruction Paul’s writings and other scriptures.

“Keeping The Laws of The Land”

For instance in Romans 13, some will say Paul is referring to being in subject to the governing body of where one resides because there is no power but of YAHUAH and they are ordained by YAHUAH. Additionally, anyone who therefore resists the governing bodies of where one resides, resists the ordinance of YAHUAH.

If this statement is true, we would see examples of our ancestors obeying the rulers and governments of other lands, but we don’t. What we see are multiple examples of our ancestors going against commands of what would be the governing bodies of where they resided and were blessed by YAHUAH for doing so.

JUDGES 2

A harlot in the land of Jericho housed two spies of Israel. When the king of Jericho asked her to release them, she resisted his command to go against YAHUAH's people but kept them hidden. She was blessed and those with her were spared.

DANIEL 3

The king of Babylon set up an image and called all of his government to come to it's dedication and to bow down to it. When the three Israelites resisted his ordinance to bow to it, they were placed in a furnace of fire, but nothing happened to them. They did not obey the government and YAHUAH blessed them.

MIDWIVES

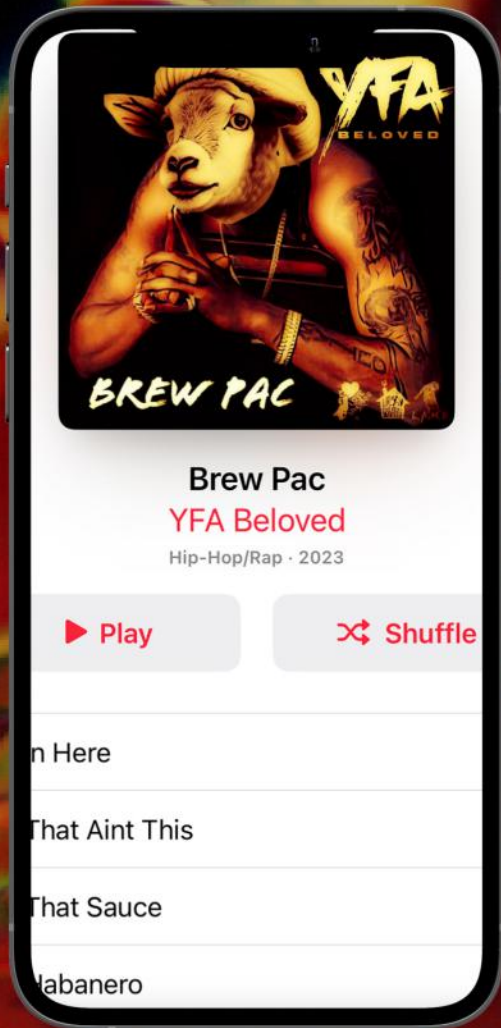

EXODUS 1: 15-21

In the land of Egypt the pharaoh made a decree to our Hebrew midwives to kill all Hebrew boys who were born and keep all Hebrew girls who were born. But the midwives feared YAHUAH and resisted the ordinance of pharaoh. YAHUAH blessed them and made them houses for not obeying pharaoh's order.

Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

WHICH

Government?

These roles mentioned in Titus 3: 1 are the equivalent of how YAHUSHA's ministry is (which would have to be subject to) which The Law gives a foreshadowing picture of. YAHUSHA is the Head of the principality (the same position as a king) we are to be subject to. The 12 disciples are the powers, which are the prince / rulers who are the heads of tribes. The 70 students that were sent out are as the magistrates. (magistrates are as officers, judges, choice and able men.)

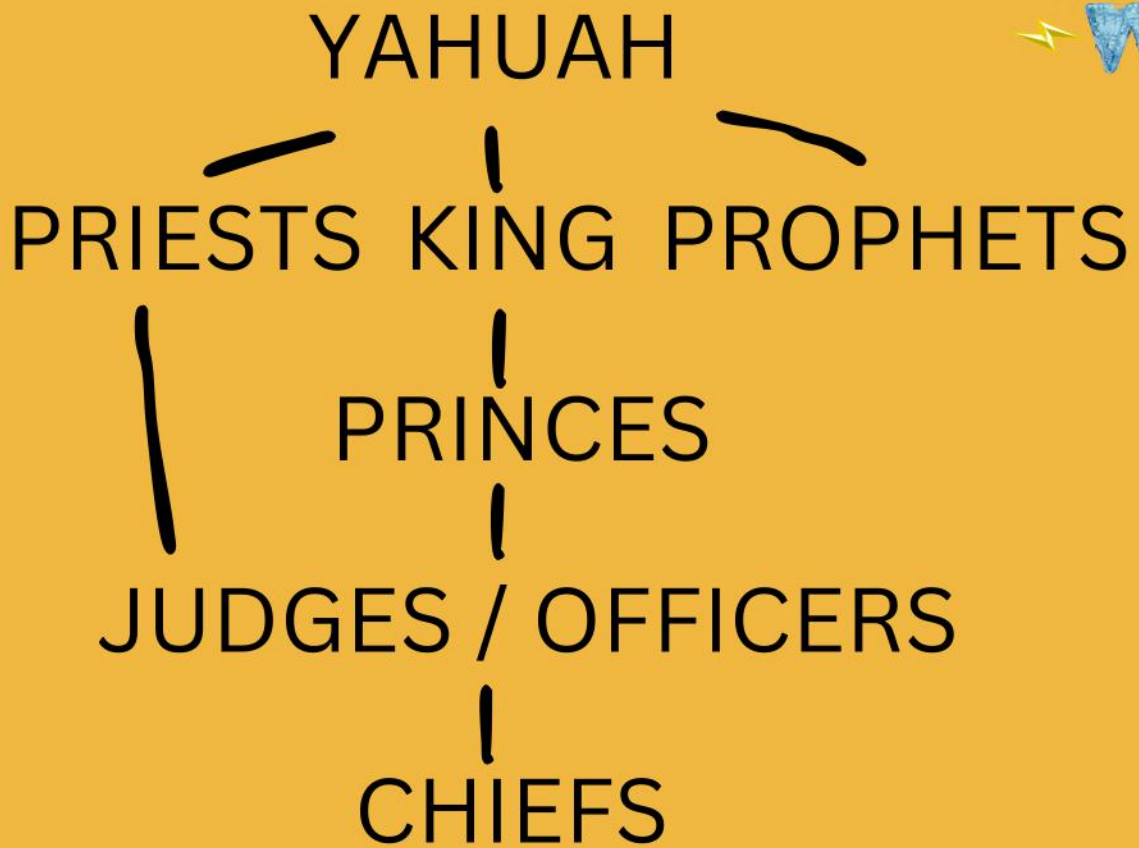

Psalms 103: 19 YAHUAH have prepared His throne in the Heavens; and His Kingdom rules over all.

Hebrews 13: 7

7 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of YAHUAH: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation

This gives us a clearer picture on YAHUSHA's government and it being the government that Paul states that those in the flesh despise.

Revealing to us how to identify those who have rule over us. Those who have spoken unto us the Word of YAHUAH. Not any theology but the Word of YAHUAH.

Titus 3:1

“Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,”

- Principalities = Head / Prince / rulers [YAHUSHA is the head all principalities Colossians 2: 10]
- Powers = rulers [YAHUAH had rulers/ princes in place from tribes Numbers 7:2][Matthew 10:1]
- Magistrates = Officers / judges [YAHUAH had judges and officers in place] Deuteronomy 16: 18 / 20: 5-9 [Luke 10:1]

John 11:9-10 (KJV) 9 YAHUSHA answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. 10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

The Light is The Law coupled with The Testimony: How else can someone see exactly what they're doing and where they're going?
Being enlightened comes from The Most High's Instructions, those ways are above the ways of man.

This world which is clearly in darkness, it's leaders are blinded by selfish ambition, loving their own way more than righteousness, just has in the beginning. When we reject The Word, we're making a bold statement and choosing to be in the dark on the matter at hand, The Everlasting Kingdom. Most states in the US have on average 800 laws to govern its citizen's behavior and the same is true for YAHUAH's Kingdom that is on the way.

Whose laws matter more, The Almighty or a mighty man that was given power to rule? Each ruler's decisions determines whether he lives and protects his people or dies while the people get scattered by an enemy. A righteous ruler will stick to the rules that have withstood the test of time, while a hireling will only do what's best for his own pleasure. One is a representative for The Most High an advocate for goodness, while the other is set up to show what not to do in a leadership position. If we take a close look at what The Righteous have done when it came down to whose laws to obey you'll noticed they weren't move by what other people had to say concerning who to be loyal to.

1 Samuel 15:24 (KJV)

And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of YAHUAH, and thy words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.
