Day by Day Itinerary

Monday, March 23 South Bend, IN

This morning we board our deluxe air-conditioned motor coach as we begin our travels through Wisconsin and northern Illinois. We'll stop for lunch and have rest breaks en route. We will be skirting around Chicago as we continue to our evening stay at the Hampton Inn at South Bend, Indiana.

Tuesday, March 24 Somerset, PA

While traveling east through the Great Lakes states of Indiana, Ohio and into Pennsylvania, we'll enjoy the activities provided on the motor coach. Our lunch stop is en route before making an afternoon observation at the Flight 93 Memorial Site. Our accommodations for the evening are at the Comfort Inn at Somerset, Pennsylvania with an included dinner.

Wednesday, March 25 Lancaster, PA

This morning sit back and enjoy the beautiful landscape of Pennsylvania, with our tour destination being Gettysburg, the sleepy little town that became the site of the turning point in the Civil War. The battlefields lay silent now, but memorials and visitors alike commemorate those who fought here. A step-on guide will join us as we relive the sights and sounds of these historical events. In addition, we will visit the location where Abraham Lincoln gave his famous speech, the Gettysburg Address. After spending a half-day in the Gettysburg area, we will board the motor coach for our short trip to the Country Inn of Lancaster, Pennsylvania for the next two nights.

Thursday, March 26 Lancaster PA

A local guide joins us today as we tour the serene area where time has stood still for a hundred years. We'll see Amish farms where the horse and plow out-produce the tractor, and bearded Amish men work from dawn 'til dusk tilling and working the soil. We'll pause for a unique country lunch served family style at the Good & Plenty Restaurant; and visit an Amish home furnished to reflect their unique lifestyle. Later this afternoon you will be treated to a shopping stop at Intercourse before returning to our hotel in Lancaster.

Friday, March 27 Alexandria, VA

This morning we will skirt the city of Baltimore on our way into Washington D.C. Our first stop will be Arlington National Cemetery, the Kennedy Grave Sites, and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. This afternoon we will tour Ford's Theater and the Peterson House. Our full day of sightseeing will be complete with a tour of the Holocaust Memorial Museum; before driving to our hotel for a three night stay at the Hampton Inn of Alexandria, VA, located outside the metro area of Washington D.C.

Saturday, March 28 Alexandria, VA

Our busy day begins with visiting tourist attractions in Washington D.C. such as several memorials and a Capitol tour. After lunch a step-on guide will join us and explain the history behind the Vietnam, Air Force, World War II, and Iwo Jima memorials, Washington Cathedral, Kennedy Center and a photo opportunity of the White House. One evening after dusk you'll experience the awe-inspiring illumination of monuments and memorials in Washington D.C.

Sunday, March 29 Alexandria, VA

This morning we'll tour the National Museum of the Marine Corps and Heritage Center which opened its doors in 2006 as a lasting tribute to U.S. Marines – past, present, and future. We will then travel to Mount Vernon where everyone can appreciate and enjoy America's historical and most famous presidential home of George and Martha Washington. We'll have lunch at the plantation, tour the mansion and visit the museum. This evening you will have the opportunity to ride the free King Street Trolley and make your choice of one of the many eateries in Old Town Alexandria.

Monday, March 30 LaVale, MD

Today we will return to the Smithsonian Museum, giving you one more opportunity to visit the galleries you have not yet seen. Late afternoon we'll bid farewell to Washington D.C. and the beauty of the Cherry Blossoms; as we travel to northern Maryland through the beautiful Cumberland Mountain Range before reaching our destination in Cumberland for our evening stay.

Tuesday, March 31

Richmond, IN

After breakfast enjoy the scenery while driving through Maryland, West Virginia, and Pennsylvania before arriving at our luncheon stop in Columbus, Ohio. Today we'll travel to Dayton and visit the United States Air Force Museum – one of the oldest and largest aviation museums in the world, featuring more than 300 aircrafts and missiles. Displays include early space suits and advanced missiles and bombs used during the Persian Gulf War. Our evening stay will be at the Holiday Inn of Richmond, Indiana.

Wednesday, April 1

New Glarus, WI

After driving through America's Heartland to Indiana, you will be amazed with the Fair Oaks Farms Adventure Center as their 35,000 dairy herd operation automatically milks 72 cows on a giant, revolving turntable! Watch calves being born in the Birthing Barn; or experience the massive swine operation from the birthing process to farrowing and finishing. Following the tour you will have an included luncheon at the farm before departing to the enchanted Chalet Landhaus Inn at New Glarus for our overnight stay. Tonight you will be treated to a Swiss Dinner Show at the Chalet.

Thursday, April 2

Home

While traveling homeward, take time for reflections of the battlefields of Gettysburg, the Pennsylvania Dutch, all the sights surrounding our Nation's Capitol, and new friends we met along the way. The beauty and fragrance of the Cherry Blossoms will linger in our minds long after our journey ends.
