Oct. 28 - Nov. 1, 2020
$1,698.00
per person

Wednesday, Oct. 28

We will depart Minnesota with an early morning flight to Dallas, Texas. Upon arrival, we'll board our motor coach and make our way to Waco, the heart of Texas and the home of Chip and Joanna Gaines; the town's celebrities as the stars of the hit show "Fixer Upper". You're sure to be inspired at Magnolia Market at the Silos, the sprawling property that includes two huge grain silos and a 20,000-square-foot barn. Treat yourself to lunch at Silos Baking Co. or one of the many food trucks offering a variety of menu items. Our overnight stay is at the Hilton-Downtown on the banks of the Brazos River.

Thursday, Oct. 29

This morning we'll begin "stitching" our way to Houston, visiting the Texas Quilt Museum. While the museum may be located in Texas, it features great quilt art, both traditional and contemporary, from all over the world. The afternoon is yours to explore the International Quilt Festival; the largest annual quilt show in the U.S. The festival features more than 1,600 quilts and unique works of textile art on display. Our overnight accommodations for the next two nights will be downtown Houston.

Friday, October 30

Today is at your leisure to ride the complimentary shuttle and anticipate returning to the George R. Brown Convention Center for the International Quilt Festival. Continue shopping at more than 1,000 booths for quilts, fabric, supplies, and crafts, along with 550 classes and lectures for all experience levels. After you've enjoyed your day to the fullest, you can return to the hotel for an evening of relaxation.

Saturday, October 31

After breakfast, we'll take a two-hour drive to Victoria, TX where the friendly staff at Quilters Patch will greet visitors upon arrival and help with your search of quilting material and supplies. Quilters Patch was recognized as Better Homes & Gardens Quilt Sampler featured shop in 2015.

This afternoon, sit back and relax while we drive to San Antonio. Upon arrival, Go Rio Cruises will offer an unforgettable miles-long excursion to experience the soul of San Antonio with a humorous and informative guided tour. We'll check into the Drury Plaza Hotel in time for their 5:30 "Kickback", featuring complimentary hot food and cold beverages. This evening take a stroll on the landmark pedestrian promenade, along the banks of the San Antonio River; a city park and network of walkways lined with cafes and shops.

Sunday, November 1

Eat a hearty breakfast at the hotel with other quilting enthusiasts before departing on a 15 minute drive to the San Antonio airport. Lunch will be on your own at the airport before departure. Upon arrival in Minneapolis, our motor coach will be waiting to take us to our drop-off locations; "piecing" together our unique visit to Magnolia Market Silos, the magic and memories of the International Quilt Festival, and a unique experience on the San Antonio River Walk!
