Itinerary

Saturday, March 12 St. Peters, MO

A grand old time is planned as we begin our journey to "Way Down Yonder", traveling by way of deluxe motor coach with a luncheon stop in Iowa. After lunch, we'll continue through the state of Missouri for our overnight stay at the Drury Inn & Suites of St. Peters, MO; arriving in time for their "5:30 Kickback", offering complimentary hot food and cold beverages.

Sunday, March 13 Memphis, TN

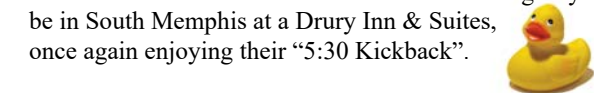

Today, we will tour the magnificent Gateway Arch. This inverted catenary of gleaming stainless steel soars 630 feet above the site of Pierre de Laclède's house and trading post. It commemorates what was the gateway to the West for thousands of 19th-century pioneers. The arch stands 75 feet higher than the Washington Monument and incorporates 900 tons of stainless steel. A short film of the construction and the settlers of the West will be viewed before the journey to the top via tram, for the views from the observation decks. After lunch, we will continue our travels south to Tennessee. At 5:00 PM, we would like to be present at the Peabody Hotel, downtown Memphis, for the world famous "Walk of the Ducks". Our evening stay will be in South Memphis at a Drury Inn & Suites, once again enjoying their "5:30 Kickback".

Monday, March 14 Vicksburg, MS

This morning, we will have a tour of the largest entertainment complex of its kind -- expanding larger than Graceland's previous visitor center. "Elvis Presley's Memphis" enables music fans and pop culture enthusiasts to follow the path that Elvis took, surrounding themselves with the things that he loved, and experiencing the sights and sounds of the city that inspired him. Fully immerse yourselves in his life and career like never before - his roots, his influences, and his artistry. After lunch, we will continue south for our evening stay at the LaQuinta Inn.

Tuesday, March 15 Natchez, MS

Today, we will see life-size exhibits and artifacts from the siege of Vicksburg, plus a film recounting this campaign when we tour the Civil War Battlefield. We'll enjoy lunch at the Cracker Barrel of Vicksburg. Our afternoon travels will take us on the beautiful Natchez Trace Parkway once a pre-civil war route which brought goods from the Mississippi River to Nashville. Upon arrival in Natchez, we will tour the grandest octagonal house in America -- the six-story, 30,000 square foot Longwood Mansion. This wonder epitomizes the rise and fall of the south, depicting a magnificent work in progress where time just stopped and stood still. This evening, we'll enjoy an included meal and Jazz entertainment.

Wednesday, March 16 New Orleans, LA

We'll travel this morning to the city of New Orleans, driving over the scenic 24-mile Lake Pontchartrain Causeway, which was affected by Hurricane Katrina. We will visit the National World War II Museum and listen to the story of the American Experience in the war that changed the world; why it was fought, how it was won, and what it means today. All generations will have a better understanding of the price of freedom and be inspired by what they learn. Heading to our hotel, excitement mounts and we find ourselves on Bourbon Street where the party never ends, construction crews spend their paychecks like sailors on shore leave, and traditional Jazz invites us to enjoy the sights and sounds. Our stay for the next two nights is at the Four Points by Sheraton, located in the heart of the French Quarter.

Thursday, March 17 New Orleans, LA

After breakfast, a step-on guide will join us for a city tour of New Orleans. Upon arrival back at our hotel, the remainder of the day is yours! Bourbon Street beckons us for shopping, dinner, and the flavor of New Orleans night life -- the St. Patrick's Day Parade!

Friday, March 18 Lafayette, LA

As we depart the French Quarter this morning, we continue the "Big Easy" and can relax while enjoying the sights and sounds of the Cajun Man's Swamp Cruise. After lunch, the Tabasco Sauce Factory "spices" up our tour before making our way to our overnight stay at the Drury Inn & Suites of Lafayette, LA. This evening, we are treated to dinner at Pont-Breaux Cajun Restaurant, which is the cornerstone of Cajun Country's proudest traditions of music, good food and lover of good times. Fresh seafood is prepared according to the Chef's original recipes and live Cajun music entertains us while we dine.

Saturday, March 19 Frisco, TX

Today, we enter the booming state of Texas! It is 800 miles wide and nearly that far north to south, consisting of a sunny seacoast to mile-high mounts, dense forests to cactus-studded deserts, and exciting cities. Step back in time while touring the East Oil Museum in Kilgore, TX. After lunch, we'll make our way to downtown Dallas to the site where JFK was assassinated and visit the Sixth Floor Museum located in the former Texas School Book Depository where that tragic day is documented. We'll be just north of Dallas at the Drury Inn of Frisco, TX, for our overnight stay.

Sunday, March 20 Oklahoma City, OK

This morning, our motor coach will be heading north to Oklahoma City to visit the National Memorial and Museum in remembrance of the victims, survivors and rescuers of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building bombing which occurred on April 19, 1995. Each of 168 lives lost is represented by a chair made of bronze, stone and glass. The museum's galleries serve as a timeline of that event, beginning with that morning. The audiotape provides sounds of the explosion, panic and confusion of the day's events. As we depart, we will have a photo stop of the Capitol before visiting the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum to explore the West. Our evening stay will be at the Sheraton downtown in the Bricktown area - a lively entertainment district complete with restaurants, shops, and access to the Bricktown Canal. The hotel is only steps away from the Myriad Botanical Gardens for an evening stroll.

Monday, March 21 Kansas City, MO

Today, our drive takes us through the vast farming regions of the Midwest before reaching Kansas City, where we will have a tour of the Steamboat Arabia and the treasures found aboard the sunken ship. Of the many casualties of the Missouri River that is on display. The Arabia's contents were remarkably well preserved, and their are more than 60 tons of artifacts that will astound you while being re-connected to our American History in a new and exciting way. Our final evening together will be in Kansas City, at the Drury Inn & Suites - Airport; once again enjoying their "5:30 Kickback" or take a stroll to the Cracker Barrel next door for some home cooking!

Tuesday, March 22 Home

After breakfast, we'll depart Kansas City with new friendships and fond memories, as our "Way Down Yonder" trip comes to a close. Relive your exciting days through memories, photos and all that Jazz!
